

c Target Programmes/Organs/Agencies

A preliminary list of intergovernmental institutions which are expected to be targeted in the strategic guidelines is appended to this document.

5 LOCATION

The Special Adviser reports to the Assistant Deputy Minister, Political and International Security Affairs and works principally with the Bureau of International Organizations.

The Special Adviser will also work with the Bureaus for Economic Policy and Legal Affairs, with the relevant divisions of the geographic branches as well as with appropriate posts and missions.

At CIDA, the Special Adviser will work closely with the Multilateral Programs Branch and the Women in Development Directorate.

The International Divisions of relevant federal departments will also be called on especially in relation to the specialized agencies and the international financial institutions.

Status of Women Canada, as the lead department for advancement of women issues, will be the focal point for the provision of technical assistance.
