

Reference Materials — Mexico

Cultural Aspects of Doing Business in Mexico was contributed to the Mexican Knowledge Base by the Canadian International Promotion Centre. These reference materials were made possible through the support of the Toronto office of Baker & McKenzie.

This publication is designed to provide a collection of perceptions related to the cultural aspects of Doing Business in Mexico. The material is not intended to be construed as a value judgment of either the Canadian, American or Mexican business people, institutions or government organizations mentioned. Although efforts have been made to avoid errors and inaccuracies in this document, it is not intended to be used as the only source of market information on this subject. We encourage the reader to use this publication as one of several resources for commercial dealings with Mexico.

Any errors, omissions or opinions found in these research materials should not be attributed to the authors nor to Government of Canada or to Baker & McKenzie. Neither the authors, the publishers nor the collaborating organizations will assume any responsibility for commercial loss due to business decisions made based on the information contained in this book.

Copyright © Minister of Supply and Services, February 1996

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, reprinted, stored in a retrieval system or transmitted in part or whole, in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise without the prior written permission of the publishers and the Crown.

Published by Prospectus Inc.
Printed in Canada.

Disponible en français