

"The first is assured and stable access to each other's markets so as to create employment in all regions of Canada and the United States and to stimulate balanced economic development in our two countries."

"The second is to attack the remaining tariff and non-tariff barriers."

"And the third objective is a better framework of rules for the settlement of disputes. With more certainty and predictability, we will both have a more confident basis for investment, expansion, modernization and specialization."

6- CULTURAL INDUSTRIES:

- "We also have special policies to protect and promote our cultural industries -- such as publishing, broadcasting, records and films. These are vulnerable in any small country that borders on a large one, and we take -- and will continue to take -- special pains to preserve them. In this regard, the distribution of Canadian feature films is becoming something of an issue in Canada. The problem is that we do not have our own distribution system. Hollywood treats us as part of one North American market. For commercial reasons, the Hollywood distributors want films that appeal to the market as a whole, which is predominantly American. As a result, it has been very hard for Canadian films to get shown in our own country. We are looking at ways to give our film makers a little better chance at the box office."
