

circumstances of the case, the evidence adduced and medical opinions, all reasonable inferences in favour of the applicant.

Pension may be cancelled, etc.

“74. Upon its appearing at any time that the circumstances by reference to which any award of pension was made no longer exist, or that any condition of such award is unfulfilled, the Department shall bring the case to the attention of the Commission, and the Commission, upon any such case being brought to its attention by the Department or otherwise, shall, after making any necessary inquiry, either give such direction as the circumstances require for the apportionment, suspension or cancellation of the pension and as to the recovery of any over payment which may have been made, or if the direction which should be given is in doubt and the public interest will not suffer by delay, shall refer the case to the chief pension advocate and the chief commission counsel in order that it may further considered by the Pension Tribunal or the Pension Appeal Court.”

Appeals to the Federal Appeal Board transferred to the Pension Tribunal.

15. All appeals heretofore taken to the Federal Appeal Board and remaining undisposed of at the date of the coming into force of this Act shall be deemed to have been referred thereunder for hearing by the Pension Tribunal and shall be dealt with accordingly.

Section 54 renumbered.

16. Section fifty-four of the said Act, as enacted by section thirty-two of chapter thirty-eight of the statutes of 1928, is re-numbered as section seventy-five.

Coming into force.

17. This Act shall come into force on the first day of October, 1930, provided that any appointment required or authorized to be made thereunder may be made at any time after the first day of September, 1930 and any salary or other payment to which any person so appointed may be entitled shall be payable from the date of his appointment.