

post graduate student, to some indignity.

I am sorry that an impression may have been created in the public mind that I sat here and did nothing with regard to this publication until my attention had been drawn to it by the Governors, who were acting on complaints received from parents. I had already acted before a copy of the first edition had time to reach parents.

Ever yours faithfully,

Principal