

CONSTITUTION.

xi.

By-law, entitled a "By-law for the due administration and improving the Widows and Orphans' Fund of the Church Society of the Diocese of Toronto," and also of any amendments to the said By-law, which may be enacted from time to time according to the provisions of the Constitution of the said Society, unless upon the omission of any of the said requirements a special written dispensation had been granted by his Lordship the President, and forwarded to the Secretary for registration within three months after the date thereof. Provided, nevertheless, that it shall be at all times competent for the President to recommend to the Standing Committee any case which in his Lordship's opinion may require special consideration, and should the Standing Committee report favourably thereon, that then the Society may grant such proportion of the annuity as to said Society may seem fit; and that it be the duty of the Secretary, after each Annual Meeting of the Society, to notify to each Clergyman whether he have or have not complied with the requirements which would entitle his Widow and Orphans to a Pension.

That every Lay Delegate of the Synod of the Diocese shall be an incorporated member of the Church Society on the payment of the annual sum of five shillings, so long as he shall continue to be such delegate, and make such payment notwithstanding anything contained in clauses 2, 3, 4, and 5 of the Constitution of said Society.

That any By-law that shall be passed by the Society relating to the Commutation or Clergy Trust Fund, the Mission Fund, or the Widows and Orphans' Fund, or in any way affecting the charges on or management of those funds, or either of them, shall be laid before the Synod of the Diocese at the first meeting of the Synod next after such By-law shall have been passed, and if at such meeting of the Synod any resolution shall be agreed to disapproving of such By-law, either in the whole or in part, and setting forth the reasons for such disapproval, the operation of such By-law shall be suspended as soon as such resolution and reasons are received by the Secretary of the Society, until the next Quarterly Meeting of the Society; and unless at such next Quarterly Meeting such By-law be sustained by the vote of two-thirds of the members present at such meeting, such By-law, or the part thereof so disapproved of, shall cease and be of no effect. Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the members at such last mentioned meeting altering or amending the said By-law in accordance with the regulations or reasons that shall be transmitted by the Synod.

That the Secretary of the Society shall transmit copies of any such By-laws, as in the second section mentioned, to the Secretaries of the Synod as soon as the same are passed, with a view to the same being laid before the Executive Committee of the Synod, that a synopsis thereof may be stated with the other business prepared for the Synod.

XXII.

That the Charter and these By-Laws do together form the Constitution of the Church Society of the Diocese of Toronto, and that nothing which is contained in the Constitution of the Society established on the 28th day of April, 1842, or in any By-Law, Rule, or Regulation amending or altering the same, shall apply to, or be in force in respect to, the Incorporated Church Society of the Diocese of Toronto, except such provisions thereof as are above continued in force.
