NORTH YORK PICNIC AS BIG AS EVER

Enormous Crowd Poured Into Jackson's Point by Car and Train.

STIRRING ADDRESSES

Victorious Candidates Discussed Issues of Recent Election.

It is estimated that over twenty thousand people were present at the annual picnic of the North York Liberal-Conservative Association, held yesterday at Jackson's Point.

Gay Procession. A great procession was held in the early part of the day from Sutton to the grounds, and hundreds of cars and rigs took part, headed by bands from Aurora, Mount Albert, Richmond Hill, Malvern, Markham, Beaverton, Stouffville and Uxbridge.

At 3 o'clock a great open air meeting was held on a specially decorated platform, decorated with bunting and welcome phrases, and a crowd of about eight thousand were treated to an interesting series of addresses by the members of the legislature present.

Mr. H. H. Seymour, M.L.A., welcomed the visitors to the great annual event of the North York Conservatives, and thanked the organizers for their efforts to bring to the people of the county a day of recreation and education.

Mr. G. S. Henry made the announcement that the rural life of Ontario was going to be transformed by the introduction of hydro radials, and at the present time the minister of power was paying considerable attention to the proposition of constructing radial lines through the province.

An interesting feature of the day's proceedings was a prize baby competition, when over thirty infants were held up in the arms of proud mothers for the judges' decision, but before the award was made the large audience was treated to a contest for lung strength and endurance, in which honours were about equal, and from which their mothers may conclude that they need have no fear of the future health of the babes.

Aurora Baby Won. The judges were Mrs. A. Alexander, Aurora, and Miss P. Marks, New York, and they had much difficulty in deciding the winner on account of the very fine specimens presented, but finally the winner proved to be a baby from Aurora, who took the highest marks for build and good looks.

Early in the afternoon two young men were apprehended by the county police and charged with collecting money under false pretence. It appears that they made known they were asking subscription for a farmers' journal and with every subscription received they gave a four-page paper. They had made many victims and had spent the day, but were

TAMWORTH GIRL DISAPPEARS

NO CLUES TO WHERE REABOUTS FOUND

Miss Blanche York Has Been Missing a Week, and Nobody Has Been Able to Account for Her Absence—Some People Fear Foul Play.

Special to The Toronto World. KINGSTON, July 15.—Where is Miss Blanche York? This is the question on everybody's lips in the little village of Tamworth, and her disappearance has caused the biggest sensation that the neighborhood has had in many years.

Miss York has been missing for a week, suddenly disappearing as if by magic, and her whereabouts in spite of every effort which has been made to find her, nothing has been heard which would give the slightest inkling as to her whereabouts. Her parents are prostrated with grief, for they cannot give any reason for her going away, and friends of the family are searching all over the district to solve the mystery.

Miss York, after the left Mrs. Walsh's home. Suicide is not even hinted at. Those who best know the young woman state that she was the best of health and spirits and that she would not take her own life. People will not believe, even in the theory of elopement, that she would all around Tamworth are being visited by searching parties, some being of the belief that she had fled to her home by way of ruffians and ill-used.

OLD CHUM RESCUES SUBMERGED FRIEND

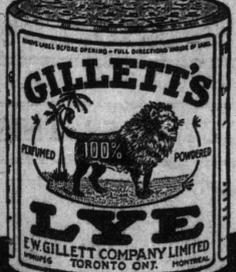

Saved Him From Poverty and Cold Charity of Police Court.

When they were boys they played together; they were chums. Then the ocean of life and the storm of the years buffeted them sorely, and they were old men now. But still they are chums, and so was Mr. Frederick Haywood, yesterday charged with being a vagabond, and a white-haired old man, too, and timorously asked if he "could take him home."

"Are you his brother?" asked the magistrate. "My chum," stated the old man, calmly, with pride on the last word. "So they let old Fred Haywood go away to the home of his more fortunate friend."

Quite different was the next case. Both got two years. Louis Parsons, given a year, and his companion was sentenced to a like term at Kingston by magistrate Kingsford. Parsons was convicted on two charges of the offence of shopbreaking and one of drunkenness. Mullen was implicated in one of the theft charges and the shopbreaking. Both were given five convictions registered against them.

CARBALJAL PRES. OF MEXICO

Victoriano Huerta took oath as provisional president of Mexico Feb. 19, 1913, the day after Francisco Madero had been arrested at the national palace.

Three days later Madero and Jose Maria Pino Suarez, vice-president, were shot to death on their way to the penitentiary. The manner of their death has never been satisfactorily explained.

One of Huerta's first acts as president was to telegraph William H. Taft, then president of the United States, the following message: "I have the honor to inform you that I have overthrown this government. The forces are with me, and from now on peace and prosperity will reign."

Civil War at Outset. The republic was at once plunged into civil war again, notwithstanding the assurance by Huerta of a proclamation of general amnesty. The Sonora State Congress officially repudiated the provisional government. Zapata, revolutionary leader to the south of the capital, after negotiating a few days with the regime, went back to his guerrilla campaign. Salazar, one of the highest generals in the army, denounced Huerta. Carranza, constitutional leader in Chihuahua, assailed him. Francisco Villa announced himself an adherent of Madero. Pascual Orozco, of the clan of northern revolutionaries, was the lone notable figure among the disaffected who declared for the government.

Recognition Refused. Huerta's refusal of his administration by the refusal of the

FLEMMING AUTHORIZED A FUND COLLECTED FROM LUMBERMEN

Teed Told of Devious Financial Dealings With Premier of New Brunswick—Latter Appointed Him to Take Charge of Funds Levied From Lumber Interests.

Canadian Press Despatch. ST. JOHN, N.B., July 15.—At the inquiry into the crown land charges made against Premier Fleming of New Brunswick, which was resumed today before the royal commission, E. R. Teed told the commission that he had been asked by Premier Fleming to take charge of the foreign fund. He had been asked to receive contributions. He understood that Premier Fleming had been informed that the lumbermen were raising a fund for party purposes. The premier had refused to have anything to do with the fund, however, but had offered to nominate a man to take charge of the fund and had accordingly selected witness (Mr. Teed) for a purpose.

A Campaign Fund. Teed said Mr. Fleming told him that Mr. Berry had informed him that the lumbermen were arranging a fund to be paid over to the government for government purposes. Mr. Fleming said that he told Berry that he was not to touch the money, but if the lumbermen had offered to go ahead with the fund he would appoint a man to take charge of it. He accordingly asked witness to do this, to which the latter consented. The funds were to be used for the "good of the party in the province."

Tangled Finances. E. R. Teed was continued on the stand during the afternoon session. He told of several transactions in connection with the money collected. He had placed the money in a safety deposit vault in the Royal Bank at St. John, but after the charges were made by Mr. Dugal he had placed the cash in the form of a special deposit in the Bank of Nova Scotia. Before this he had loaned the Fleming-Gibson Co. Limited, the sum of $15,000 out of the fund on the note of the company. This had all been paid back, with interest. He also told of buying some Maine and New Brunswick Electric Co. stock from Mr. Fleming and placing the earnings on stock in an account with the Bank of Nova Scotia, and from this fund money had been paid out for party purposes. The original sum collected was still intact.

Before the session adjourned Mr. Carvell asked witness what party the fund was for, and the witness replied that it was for the local government party.

PURSE STOLEN ON BOAT. A purse containing $15 was stolen from Miss Hattie Young of Hiawatha road, while aboard the Mayflower. The theft, according to Miss Young, took place while she was walking on deck, having left the purse on a seat in the cabin. The police have been notified.

Many petty thefts have been committed aboard ferries during the last few days, according to Sergeant Miles of Centre Island.

United States to recognize him Huerta soon faced growing difficulties in raising funds to run his government.

On May 1 Huerta announced that he would urge congress to call elections in October to pick his successor. The congress elected October 26 as the date of the election, and a decree to that effect was issued by Huerta on June 2.

Felix Diaz, who had announced himself as a candidate for the presidency, was sent to Japan on July 17.

Henry Lane Wilson, the American ambassador, was recalled to Washington and Nelson O'Shaughnessy, chargé d'affaires, was left in charge of U. S. interests in Mexico.

Peaceful intervention by U. S. Early in August it became known that President Wilson intended to send John Lind, former governor of Minnesota, to Mexico as his personal representative in an endeavor to arrange a basis for the republic's peace. Huerta announced that he would not tolerate foreign interference.

Nevertheless, Mr. Lind delivered his note from President Wilson. Huerta rejected the proposal for the American Government, chief of which were the suggestions that he resign and that he not be a candidate on election day. Relations between Mexico and the United States became acute.

Ruled as Despot. Huerta was attacked by the Mexican senate on Oct. 5 by Senator Dominguez, who had the hardihood to speak what was in the minds of himself and some of his colleagues. Dominguez disappeared. The chamber of deputies adopted a resolution calling for an investigation.

In this Huerta's reply was dramatic and swift. He marched a column of troops to the chamber, seized 110 of them and threw them into prison. Next he dissolved congress and took to himself the legislative authority, calling for the election of new members on Oct. 15.

In the election campaign certain influences close to the dictator worked for his return to the presidency, with Gen. Blanquet as his opponent. When it became certain that the elections had resulted in no constitutional choice on account of the failure of the voters to elect a president, the United States Government preemptorily called on him to resign.

Defied United States. On Nov. 12 Huerta refused to accede to the American demand for his resignation and John Lind left Mexico City for Vera Cruz.

Meanwhile the United States despatched warships to the Mexican coast and Americans continued to leave Mexico.

Definite proposals were made by the United States to Carranza and his adherents. Several of the European powers, notably Great Britain, Germany and France gave no support to the policy of the United States. The constitutionalists waxed stronger and continued their advance to the south.

International Complications. The situation became so critical that Great Britain, Germany, France, Spain and Japan ordered warships to Mexican waters.

Fighting continued at Tampico and many other centres and Torreón was taken by the constitutionalists. An embargo placed on the exporting of arms from the United States to Mexico was raised in July in February of the present year.

Then came the departure of John Lind from Vera Cruz and the arrest of a party of American blue coats at Tampico, for which an apology and salute were demanded by the United States, and refused by Huerta.

On April 12, his jackets and marines were landed and occupied Vera Cruz, in consequence of the reported arrival of a large quantity of arms and ammunition for Huerta.

Shortly after a mediation proposal from Argentina, Brazil and Chile was accepted and a conference ensued at Niagara Falls.

Meanwhile important cities fell into the hands of the constitutionalists. The victorious armies continued their march on Mexico City, where rumors have been in circulation for many weeks of the approaching resignation of Huerta.
