

INDEX

- Abbot, Mr., donkey waggon service in Transvaal, established by, 153
- Addo bush, Cape Colony, wild animals in the, 135; buffaloes in, 137
- African Hunting from Natal to the Zambesi*, by Baldwin, 185
- Alaska, colouring of the wild animals of, in winter, 11
- Amatongaland, the author's journey to, 222; inyala found in, 223
- Andersson, C. J., his opinion on buffaloes and tse-tse flies, 161; his opinion on the Keitloa rhinoceros, 183; on the black rhinoceros, 184
- Angas, Douglas, the inyala first described by, 222; his further description of the inyala, 243
- Angwa river, in Southern Rhodesia, a few rhinoceroses left near, 131
- Animals, wild, colour of, xiii, 1f.; the author's opinion on the colour of, 4 ff.; different colouring of, in the same regions, 12; senses used by, when hunting, 14; influence of surroundings on the coloration of, 39; restlessness of, 19, 42; collected in the Dett valley, 133; African, unharmed by the tse-tse fly's biting, 173
- Antelope, colour of an, 23, 29; size of ears in African, 30; difference between male and female, 33. See Blesbok, Bontelok, Duiker, Gemsbuck, Impala, Inyala, Koodoo, Situtunga, Steinbuck, Tsessebe, Reedbuck
- Ant-heaps, common in South Africa, 25
- Arms of Bushmen, 341
- Arnot, F. S., his description of the death of an elephant killed by lions, 65
- Arrows, poisoned, formerly used by Bushmen when hunting lions, 94; formerly the only arms of Bushmen, 329
- Baines, Thomas, and the tse-tse flies in the Limpopo valley, 1871, recorded in his book Gold Regions of South-East Africa, 151
- Bakalahari tribes, Dr. Livingstone on the, 339
- Baldwin, African Hunting from Natal to the Zambesi, by, 184; and the inyala, 1854, 223
- Bambaleli, Endhna of Bulawayo, courage of, when fighting lions, 94
- Bantu, an African race, 334; characteristics of the, 338
- Barbary sheep. See Sheep
- Baringo, Lake, miraculous escape of Mr. Eastwood near, 199
- Barking of wild dogs, 120
- Barotse country, tse-tse flies in, 159
- Batanwana, the, tribe at Lake N'gamu, 161
- Bechwana, a Bantu tribe of South Africa, 339
- Bechwanaland Protectorate, ant-heaps common in, 25; inhabited by Bushmen, 330
- Bellowing, a dying buffalo's, 142
- Big Game Shooting* of the Badminton Library, 198
- Birds, Darwin's opinion of the colour of, 3; ravens not Arctic, 42 n.; ticks, wa. ing rhinoceroses, 189
- Bite of a lion, poisonous nature of the, 49, 71, 263; of a tse-tse fly, 175
- Blaauwbok, extinct in South Africa, 130
- Bleek, Dr., on the languages spoken in South Africa, 332; on the language of the dwarfish Bushmen, 336
- Blesbok, description of a, 37; mis-