

HIRD THE TAILOR, LIBRARY BUILDING.

—17—

Any exhibitor lodging a protest must make it in writing and it must be delivered to the Secretary or his assistant within three hours of the cause of protest; it must state plainly the cause of complaint or appeal and must be accompanied by a deposit of $2, which sum shall be forfeited to the Association if the said protest is not sustained. The Board of Directors, however, earnestly hope that exhibitors will not enter protests without the strongest grounds for so doing, as much unpleasantness and annoyance is often occasioned by protests of a frivolous nature.

No animal or article exhibited shall have about it any prize colors or cards until the awards have been made in their respective classes.

No person shall be permitted in the horse or cattle rings during the time of judging, except the Judges, the grooms, or persons in charge of the animals, and members of the press.

All prize cards which have been affixed by the Judges must be displayed during the Exhibition. Any infraction of this rule will incur the forfeiture of any premium awarded.

Any person who shall attempt to interfere with or influence the Judges while in the discharge of their duties, or who shall at any time on the premises of the Association use any contemptuous or abusive language to any Judge in consequence of any award made by him, shall forfeit his right to any premiums to which he might otherwise be entitled, and shall be excluded from exhibiting for one year thereafter. Judges are particularly requested to immediately report any breach of this rule.

Upon the discovery of any fraud, deception or dishonest practice, either in the preparation, ownership, or of any representation concerning any animal or article exhibited, which may have affected, or have been intended to affect, the decision of the Judges, the Board of Directors have power to withhold the payment of any prize awarded, and may prohibit any such party or parties from exhibiting for one or more years, and may also publish the names of such parties or not, as may be deemed most expedient.

LIVE STOCK.

All stall doors must be left open so that visitors can inspect the live stock, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 4 p. m., and at such other times as the officers may find it desirable.

Exhibitors of thoroughbred stock must hand in the pedigrees to the Judges when examining the stock.

Good buildings are provided upon the grounds for live stock. Bedding and water will be furnished for horses, cattle, sheep and pigs without charge from the opening till the close of the Exhibition, so that the stock may be taken to the grounds immediately on their arrival. Hay and grain for cattle, horses, sheep and pigs will be for sale on the grounds at lowest prices. Exhibitors will please report at once if unreasonable prices are exacted.

The production of any animals in the horse ring may be ordered by either of the Committees on Live Stock, for review or other purposes, at any time during the Exhibition; and any attendant or exhibitor refusing to bring such animal into the ring when so required, shall forfeit his entrance fees and any premiums which have been awarded him.
