

and Conversation, in the Power of his Grace and in the Glory of his Holiness, He may reign and shine to all the Islands about, as long as the Sun and Moon endure.

And as 'twas one of the chief Disgraces of Q. ANNE's Reign, to resign this Island to the French; it is happily one of the Glories of K. GEORGE II's to recover it to the British Empire. O that it may remain united thereto for ever, and so perpetuate the Glory! O that under the Influence of British Liberties, in a happy Constitution of Civil Government, and the DIVINE Care and Blessing, even Louisbourg itself, with Cape-Breton, and all Nova Scotia, may revive and flourish. May they have religious, wise and generous Governors, that may be as nursing Fathers to them; encourage them in Piety, Virtue and good Order, promote their Trade, and protect them in their Properties and Liberties.

Lastly, may this happy Conquest be the dawning Earnest of our DIVINE REDEEMER's carrying on his Triumphs thro' the Northern Regions; till he extends his Empire from the Eastern to the Western Sea, and from the River of Canada to the Ends of America. — THEN from the uttermost Parts of the Earth shall be heard Songs, even Glory to the righteous God: They shall lift up their Voice, they shall sing for the Majesty of the LORD, they shall cry aloud from the Sea; they shall glorify the LORD in the Woods and Valleys, on the Lakes and Rivers, in the Mountains, in the Islands: And the Heavens and the Earth shall be filled with his Glory, and eccho with his Praise. AMEN.

Just publish'd (Price 2s. neatly bound;
Printed in the University Printing-Office at Oxford,

By His Majesty's Special Command)

A Neat small New Testament (of such a convenient Size as to take up very little room in the Pocket) printed on good round Letter. To which is prefix'd, A Complete Summary---whereby any particular Passage in those holy Books may soon be found. --- Let. the words of Christ awell in you richly, Col. iii. 16.

A Work never before publish'd in this Manner: Being a good Companion for all pious Persons to have about them, either in Publick Worship, or in any Place of Retirement.

Sold by John Lewis, in Bartholomew-Close, near West-Smithfield, London; where may be had a larger Testament, with the same Summary, Price Three Shillings, neatly bound.