

CONTENTS.

LECTURE I.—Things generally believed to be Romish, with Professor Cunningham's test. The Protestant temple of Romish architecture, and with Romish decorations. Consecration of buildings resulting in sanctuaries or holy places in which God resides. The communion table an altar. Holy water. The ministers of the temple, holy fathers, prelatie bishops, absolving priests.

LECTURE II.—Apostolic succession. Romish rags on Protestant ministers. Protestant and Popish rule of faith very much alike. Baptismal regeneration: sign of the cross. The Protestant confessional. Protestant penances, indulgences, and absolutions. The Protestant sacrifice of the altar.

LECTURE III.—Consubstantiation, transubstantiation, and the Real Presence in the Lord's Supper. Observance of saint's days, and religious processions. Romanism in extempore prayer. Romanism in the service of praise.

LECTURE IV.—Religious reverence for relics and holy places, with Protestant pilgrimages to them. Miracles performed by modern Protestant saints. Hymns and prayers addressed to departed saints, and prayers for the dead. Romish practices at burials.

LECTURE V.—Cruel and bloody persecutions. Given up to strong delusion to believe a lie. Seducing spirits preaching unity. New F. formed Episcopal presbyter merely old priest unfrocked.