

THE "TORONTO RAFFLES" OPERATED BY HAMILTON

Articles Taken Found in Heap of Plunder at Baltimore—Auto Stolen From Garage.

HAMILTON, Nov. 27.—(Special.)—Chief Smith announced today that Thomas H. Barnett and Florence Tomlinson, who were arrested some time ago in Baltimore, operated here. They broke into the residence of T. W. Watkins and stole a number of articles. These were located in the heap of plunder found at Baltimore.

The police were notified today that during last night Christopher's garage was entered and a seven-seater auto belonging to James Dixon, the father of Medley Dixon of the variety team, was stolen. Enquiries were sent out all over the country, but up to tonight no word has been received of the car. Of course this theft is blamed on some villain of the underworld.

As a result of the excitement here last evening after the three Toronto men and two local men were arrested, Adrian Rathbun, charged with disorderly conduct, John Smith, charged with being disorderly, and Percy Sullivan, also charged with being disorderly, all hail from Toronto. They were arrested at different times by Acting Detective Barrett, and all got out on bail. David Fraser, Christopher Potage, St. George, were the local men who got too outrageous.

Religion and Longevity. The anniversary services at First Methodist Church today were conducted by Rev. W. J. Hunter of Toronto. In the morning Dr. Hunter said that Christian people lived longer than heathen and women who were simply mortal, but were destitute of personal religion. The death took place at the Toronto City Hospital of Miss Mammie Smith, whose relatives reside at 33 Bismarck-street, Toronto. The remains were conveyed to Toronto today for interment Tuesday.

Miss Blodell of Lynden died at the residence of her son-in-law, T. H. Keller, 315 West Main-street, yesterday. She was 75 years of age. Mrs. Anna Linnin passed away yesterday at her late residence, 84 Gardiner-street, in the 78th year of her age. Arthur Weir died at his residence, 122 North Catherine-street.

The remains of James H. Elliott, who died in Davidson, Sask., on Nov. 22, have been brought here for interment. The deceased was for some time a public school teacher in Hamilton. The funeral takes place tomorrow from Green's Undertaking Parlor.

George Glasco was arrested last evening on a charge of robbing a man assaulting John Taylor. Both are colored boys.

Dedicated New Church. Bishop Dowling this afternoon dedicated the new Roman Catholic Church on the corner of Dundas and Market streets. It will be known by the name of St. Thomas Aquinas. The church cost $300,000 and the dedication of this has been paid off. An address of thanks was read to his lordship on behalf of the congregation.

The members of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew attended corporate communion at Christ Church Cathedral this morning.

Hotel Hanrahan, corner Barton and Catherine-streets, Hamilton, is being entirely situated and easily reached from all parts of the city. Erected in 1908. Modern and strictly first-class American plan. Rates $1.50 to $2 per day.

Two policemen are tonight raiding the warehouse of W. H. Gillard & Co., wholesale grocers, to see that no burglars escape therefrom. Bright lights were seen in the building tonight, but a perfunctory inspection revealed no discrepancies. It is thought that the burglars, if such there are, are still in the building, and a thorough search will be made tomorrow morning. The two officers remaining on duty at the warehouse are Constables Fred Cox, Hess-street, and Saturday night got his revolver from a repair man. While waiting for the repair man to pull the trigger to see if the weapon worked properly. There was a loud report and a bullet went through the hand. The repair man had left a cartridge in the revolver and Cox did not know it was loaded.

LET YOUR STOMACH HAVE ITS OWN WAY.

Do Not Try to Drive and Force it to Work When it is Not Able or You Will Buffer All the More.

You cannot treat your stomach as some men treat theirs. You must drive or even starve it into doing work at which it rebels. The stomach is a patient and faithful servant and will stand much abuse and ill-treatment before it "balks," but when it does you had better go slow with it and not attempt to make it work. Some people have the mistaken idea that they can make their stomachs work by starving themselves. They might cure the stomach that way, but it would take so long that they would have no use for a stomach when they get through. The sensible way out of the difficulty is to let the stomach rest if it wants to and employ a substitute to do its work. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do the work of your stomach for you and digest your food just as your stomach used to when it was well. You can prove this by putting your food in a glass jar with one of the tablets and sufficient water and you will see the food digested in just the same time as the digestive fluids of the stomach would do it. That will satisfy your mind. Now, to satisfy both your mind and body take one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after eating—eat all and what you want and you will feel in your mind that your food is being digested, because you will feel no disturbance or weight in your stomach; in fact, you will forget all about having a stomach, just as you did when you were a healthy boy or girl.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets act in a natural way because they contain only the natural constituents of the gastric juices and other digestive fluids of the stomach. It makes no difference what condition the stomach is in, they go right ahead of their own accord and do their work. They know their business and surrounding conditions do not influence them in the least. They thus relieve the weak stomach of all its burdens and give it its much-needed rest and permit it to become strong and healthy.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale at all druggists at 50 cents a box. They are so well-known and their popularity is so great that a druggist would be so soon think of being out of alcohol or quinine as of them. In fact, physicians are prescribing them all over the land, and if your own doctor is real honest with you, he will tell you frankly that there is nothing on earth so good for dyspepsia as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

MUTINEERS SURRENDER SHIPS TO GOVERNMENT

Action Followed Granting of Amnesty and of Demands For Higher Pay.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Nov. 27.—The ships of the Brazilian fleet, which had been in the hands of the mutineers since Wednesday night, were surrendered to the government at 7 o'clock last evening. This action of the mutineers followed the granting of their demands by the government of amnesty for all concerned in the revolt, higher pay and less work for the sailors, and the adjustment of certain minor grievances.

The warships in the hands of the mutineers included the Minas Geraes, the Sao Paulo, the Bahia, the Rio Grande Do Sul and the Deodoro. After the announcement of their surrender they proceeded out into the bay and re-entered the harbor after half-past one o'clock, no longer flying the red flag. Jean Candido, the leader of the mutineers, in company with forty other sailors, abandoned the Minas Geraes some time Friday, and the minister of marine despatched an officer to board the battleship to ascertain whether it was the intention to deliver other vessels.

About the same time it was rumored that the officers, who had been named to take command of the warships after their surrender, would decline to do so, fearing the fate of Captain Neves, former commander of the Minas Geraes, and several other officers, who were killed by the sailors, when they offered resistance the night of the outbreak.

This rumor proved to be without foundation. A meeting of the naval officers' club last night, called to consider protesting against the granting of amnesty to the rebels, was forbidden by the government.

could not legislate because, while sympathy was necessary to legislation, sympathy without knowledge was impossible.

F. E. Smith, in the course of a speech at Burnley, made reference to Redmond's "American dollars," and said he wanted no foreign country to help him in the contest. "I do not want them keep their breath to cool their own porridge."

Lord Hugh Cecil emphasized the danger of anchoring a tyranny of chance majorities in the commons.

T. P. O'Connor, speaking at London, stated that if the Tories could get a description from Lord Curzon of the form, there would be nothing heard about dollars.

The Tories are making urgent appeals to the moderate men among the Liberals, and profess to be afraid of apathy on this occasion, but nothing else. The opposition expect to win half a dozen seats on the balance in London, but are looking with hope rather than confidence, to Lancashire. The stock exchange wagers shows that the opinion of the brokers is that the Radical chances are declining.

Lloyd-George Rebuked. LONDON, Nov. 27.—(New York Sun Cable.)—Next week will see the hottest time on the hustings of this generation of Englishmen. The Liberals are undoubtedly better equipped than the Unionists in respect of campaign literature from a popular point of view. English workmen voters seem to have developed a lively appetite for "propaganda" rather than vulgar forms of denunciation, which the Unionist speakers seem unable to gratify. The Unionist press, for example, prints Lloyd George's utterances freely in the natural belief that they will offend instead of attracting moderate men.

Some of the chancellor's attempts to arouse class hatred and personal detestation of the peers bring sharp rebuffs. Thus the Duke of Marlborough says: "Lloyd George has been down to Whitechapel where, as he said, no peers reside, and where, as he forgot to say, he does not reside himself. He spoke as the confidential adviser to the crown, and his tone was abusive of dukes. When Lloyd George did me the honor of staying at Blenheim nearly three years ago I certainly did not suspect that I should eventually become a target of his insolent and unsavory invective."

"At that time I must have thought him a gentleman, but he seems to have since reverted to type and become himself. In his later appearances he is neither a pleasant nor an edifying spectacle. What do the real poor think, who can't get a word of the sham poor man wallowing himself in every luxury which 45,000 a year can bring while he sits up the embers of class hatred?"

FOR GOVERNOR OF MANITOBA
D. C. Cameron, Manager of Rat Portage Lumber Co., Slated for Job.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 27.—(Special.)—It is rumored here that D. C. Cameron, the former Liberal candidate for the defence of commons at the last general elections, will succeed Sir Daniel McMillan as next lieutenant-governor of Manitoba. Mr. Cameron has had considerable legislative experience in Ontario, and it is expected that the announcement of his appointment will be approved by all. He is manager of the Rat Portage Lumber Company, one of the biggest lumber companies in the west, and is prominent in the business, social and political life of the province.

ALLAN LINER VIRGINIAN HAD A HARD TIME MAKING HALIFAX—TWO WASHED OVERBOARD.

HALIFAX, Nov. 27.—(Special.)—For the past twenty-four hours the Nova Scotia coast has been swept by hurricane weather, which has played havoc with the telegraphic and telegraph wires, and delayed shipping.

The Allan liner Virginian, the first forward bound mail steamer, which sailed from St. John Friday afternoon, and should have reached Halifax Saturday morning, and sailed for Liverpool last night, did not make port until this morning. After rounding the Nova Scotia coast the vessel was run into the teeth of the storm, and was forced to slow down to five knots an hour. A blinding snowstorm was raging, and it was with the greatest difficulty that the ship was kept on her course.

In the Bay of Fundy the D. A. R. liner Yarmouth encountered the gale. Robert Taylor of Round Hill, Annapolis, who was returning from Upper Canada with his bride from their honeymoon trip, was washed overboard and drowned. The Yarmouth ran into the teeth of the storm, and was forced to slow down to five knots an hour. A blinding snowstorm was raging, and it was with the greatest difficulty that the ship was kept on her course.

Grand Trunk Pacific Dining Cars. The volume of business which has been offered on the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway since their passenger service was put into effect last July, has necessitated the early increase of equipment, and the Canada Car Co. has turned out for the Grand Trunk Pacific three new dining cars, which are models of elegance and beauty.

The exterior length of the car is 32 feet 6 inches, the balance of the interior of the car being taken up by the modern kitchen, refrigerators and pantries. The interior of the car is finished in plain and figured mahogany, with a harmony of colors that is pleasing to the eye. The cars are heated by steam, and lighted with electric light.

The dining room accommodates 30 people at one sitting. The floors are covered with handsome carpets of an exclusive design, and with a pattern conforming to the general color scheme of the interior. These cars are equipped with all the improvements and appliances of a restaurant, and modern skill, and are the handsomest dining cars that have been turned out from Canadian shops.

They will leave for the west in a day or two, and will be objects of interest as well as supplying comfort to western travelers, and will be an addition to the already well-known service of the Grand Trunk Pacific in western Canada.

ATTACKS WINSTON CHURCHILL
Male Suffragette Use Dog Whip on Home Secretary.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—Winston Churchill, home secretary, returning to London last night after a speech at Bradford, was attacked in the train by a male suffragette with a dog whip, who cried out: "Take that you cur!"

Two detectives who accompanied Mr. Churchill, parried the blow and overpowered the suffragette. The latter is believed to be a man who interrupted Mr. Churchill during his address and was expelled from the meeting after a violent struggle.

When the train arrived at London three women tried to assault the home secretary, but the detectives drove them off. A little more than a year ago—Nov. 12, 1909—the home secretary was attacked by a suffragette and a dog whip, not unlike the one yesterday except that the suffragette was a woman. As the minister was descending with his wife from a train, Bristol a well-dressed woman broke thru the crowd and lashed him with a dog whip. "Take that, you brute," she cried.

Mr. Churchill partly warded off the blow, but the woman persisted. He grasped the whip and a sharp tussle ensued, the woman fighting and scratching like a tigress, according to the police, who finally separated the combatants.

JAP PREMIER MAY RESIGN.
VICTORIA, Nov. 27.—Count Komura's health, according to Japanese papers, is such that his resignation as prime minister is expected at any time. Numerous suggestions are made as to a probable successor, the names of Baron Kato and Baron Motono being mentioned.

The count underwent a surgical operation a few weeks ago, the physicians thought he would recover quickly, but it is believed that the operation was too great a tax on his strength.

"Pneumonia"

Pneumonia is nothing more or less than "Lung Fever," or as it used to be called, "Inflammation of the Lungs," and the results come entirely from a local source; such as taking a violent cold.

There is more or less difficulty in breathing; a cough, at first dry, but soon accompanied by raising a thick, sticky, rusty-colored matter, composed of a mixture of phlegm and blood.

There is only one way to prevent Pneumonia, and that is to cure the cold just as soon as it appears. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will do this quickly and effectively.

Mrs. G. W. Bowman, Pattullo, Ont., writes: "Three years ago I caught a cold which ended in a severe attack of Pneumonia. Since that time, at the beginning of each winter, I seem to catch cold very easily. I have been so unable to speak loud enough to be heard across the room. Last winter, however, a friend advised me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, saying it had helped her. I bought a bottle, and before it was half used I was completely cured. I also find it a good medicine for the children when they have colds."

THE TORONTO VARIETY ROYALTY ROTERS

that ever worked on the gridiron. The much-touted Tiger wing line, which had been the whole game for comparison—outplayed. Two incidents in the play showed this to a striking degree. In the first quarter Varsity, the mascot rotters, 25 yards out, gained the necessary ten yards on three backs, started bucking again, and, Foules dropping the ball, Dixon seized it and in a twinkling was around the end for an easy try. At the beginning of the last period, Tigers had the ball within a few yards of the goal posts, but after three smashing attempts to kick over, had to surrender the ball.

The field was in a slimy slippery condition, and the Varsity backs were badly hampered. Varsity would try a sharp turn to avoid a tackle, a trick they are adept at, they would slip and fall. But in spite of this, there were some remarkably swift passing plays, while the backs were superb. Dixon, who has been held to be a shade under his comrades, twinkled like the brightest of stars in the football firmament.

Tigers set out with a fine show of force and speed and for the first two or three minutes had the collegians desperately on the defensive. Then the latter seemed to get their bearings and the first half's play was practically in their hands. The second touch was got when Gall started on a run, and passed long and high to Maynard, who sprinted across the line and aimed squarely behind the goal post. This goal was converted.

A Hot Finish. In the second half Tigers began to play like fiends again. Simpson began to boot for points and forced Maynard and Dixon to make a quick succession. At three-quarter time the ball was within a yard or so of Varsity line. The last quarter began with a bang. Varsity made a quick buck over territory to cross, but they couldn't break thru the blue and white defence. Kid Smith's kick to dead line added three points, and almost right away Simpson kicked to touch in goal, another point. Tiger rotters were now making the noise they had had to keep from making on both sides.

But Varsity was not on the run. From it, and for the next ten minutes, it was a punting duel that was as spectacular as it was exciting. At the same time, there was plenty of brilliant punting on both sides. Varsity wings were following up fast, and when Gall booted to Moore, Park was on him and forced a rouge. Dixon added the next one on a kick to Smith for a rouge. A duplicate play resulted in Smith's knocking the ball into touch in goal, another point. Gall punted to Simpson, behind Tiger line, and he was passed to Moore or to Smith, who related to Dixon, and Biddy was there with a quick return for a touch in goal, and the score was 15 to 7. Maynard's long kick into touch added the finishing point.

The game began at 2.30, and was over soon after 4, there being few spectators. The game was a hot one, and a man in the first half, Kennedy replacing Murray Thompson on the college line-up. Two men were sent to the fence, both Hamilton men, one for foul play and the other for talking too freely to the referee.

The Tiger team, according to their own admirers—usually the kindest of kind—were a very good team. Varsity game they were capable of. What they had in individual superiority in weight or in strength or in supposed all-round ability, they lacked in team spirit. The boys were very good to come in eight years, they were defeated on their own field, and that only other defeat was by 2 points. Certainly "Old Ben" Simpson would be a valuable "come back" after the punk exhibition against the Argos a fortnight ago, and performed almost faultlessly.

The After Celebration.
The thousands of the spectators who had gathered on both sides of the field close together, gallubranly extending his hand to clasp that of the coach who looked just as highly pleased, kept puffing contentedly at his pipe.

The Highlanders' Band, followed by the students, paraded around the field, and as they passed the Tiger rotters they were hailed with a great shout of approval by waving their own colors and giving the collegians a hearty cheer. The parade then proceeded downtown. There was no crush or disturbance of any kind. The parade, which was thronged with Hamiltonians, and the cars were running. A procession resulted that, with the shouting of the rotters, pennants and bunting, made it look like a fair day in Toronto. A bunch of Tiger suffragettes added to the merriment by making vicious, if playful, grabs for Varsity colors.

Alto the cheering and singing at time of cheering the familiar Reddam, there was a thought of destruction or disturbance on the part of the rotters. The suffragettes were in a row, and the suffragettes were in a row, and the suffragettes were in a row.

Just before the dummy was set abaze, President Falconer appeared and congratulated the students on the great victory. "The team is a credit to the University of Toronto," said he, "and we are proud of them one and all."

It was midnight when the celebration ended.

Inspector Cuddy of No. 2 police division, says he never saw the students try to act more like gentlemen than they did Saturday night, and they were as orderly and peaceable as they were when they were in the gymnasium. When outsiders, but, tins into the parade, tried to get gay, the students soon showed that their room was more desirable than their company.

During the afternoon the crowds around the newspaper offices were large and excited, and followed the game almost as keenly as those who were watching the actual play.

was not done from humanitarian principles, rather than in anticipation of disorder, is not improbable. Most of the wagers were posted in the hotel offices and after the game the Toronto bunch had money to burn, and no wonder they were for food or liquors.

Burned Tiger in Effigy. The main body of the rotters came back to the city about 3.15 p.m., and headed by the band, paraded via York, King and Yonge-streets, a youth in a white sweater and riding a white horse, here back, leading the way with a squad of mounted police, via Yonge and College-streets to the Varsity campus. A lorry with a big dummy, with the features of a tiger, was a feature of the parade, while a stretcher, borne at the front, with the semblance of a figure representing Hamilton, was a more gruesome reminder of the tragedy that had been enacted there. Fully 2000 gathered on the Varsity lawn, where a huge quantity of specially prepared crates were in readiness for a bonfire. While one of the blazes high, the tiger dummy was tied, head down, from the goal posts on the lawn, wood was piled under, five gallons of kerosene poured over the pyre, and then Prof. Wright was invited to touch the match. Amid singing and shouting the flames leaped high, seized on the tiger, and in a moment the dummy was blazing merrily.

Just before the dummy was set abaze, President Falconer appeared and congratulated the students on the great victory. "The team is a credit to the University of Toronto," said he, "and we are proud of them one and all."

It was midnight when the celebration ended.
