S. C. Hildreth had a bad Thursday at Woodbine Park. He had six horses in five races and failed to win one. In the first Restigouche was scratched. Pardner ran outside the money in the second. He had two in the fourth, Woodcraft finishing third, and Firestone funning outside the money. Dinna Ken fell in the steeplechase and Royal Meteor refused conditions in the

Pete Davidson, well-known locally and formerly owning horses, including Eurypides, has a new mutuel machine which he claims is the ideal substitute for the bookmaker. It is what he calls a centralized affair, consisting of one central board, which has space for 20 or more entries, the central part of the board carrying the name of the jockey, horse, weight and post position. On the side indicators show the number of the different priced tickets sold on the respective entries, straight, place and show. Another indicator to the extreme right of each section shows the total pool on each entry in their
