Leafs Use Their Bats When Hits Mean Runs and Take the First of Series—Higgins With Newark—International Scores.

NEWARK, N.J., June 20.—Joe Kelley and his band of Maple Leafs blew into town today and added another victory to their string by scalping McGinnis' band of Redskins 4 to 1.

This makes four victories in a row for Kelley's Klouters and five wins out of the last six games played.

Richard Rudolph did the flinging for Toronto and was very busy in handling out hits. The Indians could only connect for five hits and only netted Newark one run.

Nine times did the Kelley men swing their bats in telling fashion. Meyer, the first man up in the initial innings, worked Schardt for a free ticket and immediately policed the middle station.

O'Hara popped out and Shaw took three swings. Meyer then got in one of his extra base hits and in trotted Meyer. Bradley breezed out.

Schardt held the Leafs for the two innings, but they broke loose again in the fourth. Shaw singled out and Jordan drew a charity. Bradley poked to left for two corners and Big City counted. McConnell grounded out. Along came Holly with a single to centre and Bradley scored.

Bemis forced Holly at second.

Rudolph opened up the fifth with a single and Meyer sacrificed. O'Hara scratched an infield hit. Shaw's one corner represented Rudy. O'Hara stole third and Shaw did the criminal act, setting the middle station. Jordan fanned and Bradley flew out.

Bob Higgins, the ex-Leaf, batted for Schardt in the bat for Newark.
