Look for it when you buy.

Shea's Yonge-street Theatre will be just to the public on Monday. Since the theatre was closed nearly two months ago the house has been fully repaired, and for the opening bill Manager Shea will give his patrons one of the best vaudeville show that have ever appeared in Toronto. The entire bill is made up of star acts. The headliner will be Miss Valerie Bergere and Co., presenting her one-act romantic drams, "Carmen." Miss Bergere has outdone her former successes in "Carmen," and the beautiful situations of that great open have been condensed in a mastically manner into a one-act drama. The production is enaborately staged, and the setting will be one of the most beautiful of the season. The costumes on, Minine Olton, Thomas H. Burton, Gale Satterlee and many others who are well known.

After an absence of several seasons one spent across the big "pond," Wil-iam Collier returns to this city, appearing at the Princess Theatre next Thursday night in his hit of former seasons, "On the Quiet." The comedy is written in the most subtle, clever wits of Augustus Thomas, and even in wits of Augustus Thomas, and even in the passing of time it will lose none of its flavor. The story of the play is told with delicacy and trenchant wit well suited to the capabilities of Mr. Collier. Some of the scenes are lively. Maude Fealey is now the Agnes Colt of the play. What Bradstreet's Review Has to Say About the State of Business During Week.

New York, Jan. 19.-Bradstreet's relew of trade for the week says: The boot and shoe trade notes quiet in retail lines, but spring goods are being shipped in record volume from astern points, the totals for the week and fortnight exceeding a year ago by ber 274, against 286 last week, 304 in the like week of 1905, 266 in 1904, 253 in 1903, and 292 in 1902. Mild weather and lack of snow is still a drawback to Canadian retail still a drawback to Canadian retail trade, but rather more inquiry is noted in wholesale lines on spring accounts. Compensations are found in the continued activity of outdoor industry, especially in building lines, and the better transportation conditions possible. Montreal reports a little more life in spring trade at wholesale with some portions of the interior helped by snowfalls. Staple products are generally steady at high prices, tho sugar is lower. Hides are easy, but leather is more active for spring account, and collections are fair to good. Toronto reports wholesale trade quiet, with mild tions are fair to good. Toronto reports wholesale trade quiet, with mild weather affecting interior Ontario trade. Canned goods are scarce and wery firm. Demand from the Northwest for spring is good. Collections from Ontario have improved, but those from the Northwest are still slow. A feature is the very high price of hog products. Winnipeg reports trade a little more active, with retail trade hampered by mild weather, but outwork is active, and there are no important interruptions to railway traffic. Collections are still slow. The feature in British Columbia trade is the activity in the mining and timber industries, which showed great expansion in 1905. Failures for the week number 36, as against 46 last week, and 37 in this week a year ago.

The musical program to be presented by the Kaffir Boy Choir at Association Hail on Tuesday evening next is chiefly English, but a very pleasing feature.
