Premier to Stop Scandal Made Cinqmars a Sacrifice

Story as to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's
Sudden Disapproval of La
Presse Correspondent in Face of Quebec Liberals' Strong Disapproval.

Ottawa, June 15.—(Special.)—Rumors of all kinds are flying about to explain why Mr. Cinqmars was thrown to the lions yesterday. Followed as it was by the abrupt turn-down of the minister of justice in the Brother case, it is difficult to see how Mr. Aylesworth can save his face, except by resignation.

Quebec Liberals are, of course, incensed, but not more so than some of the far western members.

It is claimed that Sir Wilfrid Laurier retreated on account of a threat to summon the owner of La Presse. There are reasons why the government prefers to have that ownership remain a mystery.

A prominent Conservative member from Ontario, who is widely known as an imperialist, is authority for the statement that notice was served on the government that if its attitude was not promptly changed towards the Cinqmars case members of the opposition would ventilate on the floor of the house some current gossip respecting some men/high up in the Liberal party.

This threat, if carried into effect, would not have been a personal one; but it would have severely jarred the dignity of parliament.

One thing is certain, something was said or done between 6 and 8 o'clock last night with the result that Cinqmars was put to the sword, although the premier in substance endorsed and repeated the concrete charges of his abusive publications.

Threatened to Resign.
Ottawa, June 15.—(Toronto News Special.)—The impression prevails this morning that Sir Wilfrid Laurier faced a sharp little crisis yesterday over the Cinqmars case.

As the debate went on it got abroad in the government ranks that the premier had decided to support Mr. Foster, and there was intense indignation, especially among the Quebec Liberals.

A hurried caucus of French-Canadian members and one or two others, it is understood, was held, and it was decided to see the premier, and inform him of their determination to support Mr. Cinqmars.

This was done, but Sir Wilfrid Laurier was not to be coerced.

The threat that all on the premier beyond making him more than ever determined to persevere in his course. His reply was that if they voted against his resolution, he would resign and appeal to the country.

QUERY ABOUT THE ARCTIC WHAT WOULD ANSWER BE?

Northrup's Curiosity Not Gratified
—Purser Took Things for Granted.

Ottawa, June 15.—(Special.)—Before the "Arctic" committee this afternoon, Dr. Flood said that only one tribe of Eskimos came on board the Arctic.

Another tribe went on board the U. S. whaler Era. Only the women danced, as a rule. Mr. Northrup asked if the Eskimo women went on board ship at night on occasions other than the dances, but R. S. Macpherson, who was in the chair, disallowed the question.

As regards the champagne, Dr. Flood said it had only been given out at first for medical purposes, but it was afterwards used for christening "Laurier Cape" and "Preston Bay."

The medical appliances which had been purchased were still at Sorel, he said. Some of the medical supplies had been left for the mounted police.

The witness said it was almost a necessity to have natives aboard a vessel in the north. Particularly for a whaler, it was desirable to have them for they knew the waters better than the white men. He said, in reply to Mr. Carvell, that they found the natives extremely honest.

H. H. Weeks of New Port, N. S., purser on board the Arctic, said his duties at Quebec were to check the goods as they were received at the ship. The pads on which he jotted down the quantities, he believed, were handed over to the government.

Mr. Bennett pointed out that he had signed for goods which had been placed on board before he arrived.

Mr. Weeks replied that his superior officer, Captain Bernier, had said the goods had come, and told him to sign. There were invoices for goods amounting to $11,129, which he had signed under these conditions. He could not swear to quantities, he believed, the different varieties were on board.

HEADTAX IN SEPARATE BILL.
Too Radical a Proposal to Be Passed in a Hurry.

Ottawa, June 15.—(Special.)—At the evening session the house passed the Penitentiaries Bill and considered at length the provisions of the Immigration Act. The interpretation clause was modified so as to exempt all passengers of ship who are native-born Canadians or naturalized British subjects residing in Canada.

RECTOR MAKES A STATEMENT IN THE FRANKLAND AFFAIR

Full History of the Negotiations in Which Improper Participation is Alleged.

Rev. Frank Vipond of St. Barnabas Church, when asked by The World concerning an interview given to the evening papers by H. R. Frankland in reference to certain irregularities in the transfer of church property, objected strongly to trial by press.

He objected to giving out information heretofore because, in his opinion, it was unseemly and unfair. After consulting his solicitor, however, and a large circle of friends, he determined to place a correct statement of the facts in the hands of the press.

deeming it in the interest of the congregation, and of the cause for which the church stood. Furthermore, he wished it understood that there was not as one evening paper suggested, discord among the congregation.

The statement published below constitutes in effect, and is the same statement made by the rector to the members of the vestry on Monday, May 28, and again read by him at a vestry meeting last Wednesday night, at which the resolution adopted by the vestry and forwarded to the bishop and attorney-general was passed.

This statement with correspondence published below constitutes what the rector deems necessary to give to the press in view of the remarkable interviews in yesterday's "Evening News."

"There is no suggestion," said Mr. Vipond, "that Mr. Frankland intended putting this money for his own use, but in order to carry out his purpose he used practices which were not only unbecoming, but illegal. He has never attended church since I became rector, having felt aggrieved at the departure of my predecessor. In 1904 he took an active interest in negotiating for a new church, but on March 15, 1905, he wrote to the vestry secretary withdrawing the subscription to the church, declaring that he was not a member of St. Barnabas and did not want to be associated therewith."

The following is the statement made by the rector to the vestry:

"I feel it is my duty to place before you a statement of facts relating to the transfer of the trusteeship of the lot, corner of Broadview and Danforth, in order that you may have an intelligent idea of the entire proceedings. I will as briefly as possible recite the previous events leading up to the present position, and placing this statement before you after very earnest consideration, and fully realizing its painful nature in respect to the past, but after laboring in this parish for nearly three years, and knowing by my own personal experience how the work of the church has been retarded by the existing wrong conception, in the minds of some, of what the church stands for, I feel I must not be deterred in my duty if I do not now take such steps as I feel to be necessary to prevent a repetition of the state of affairs which ought never to have occurred, and which, unfortunately, has in the past given to the parish a reputation least of all to be desired by professional followers of the Prince of Peace."

"I recognize now, as I have always recognized since I first came among you, that the large body of the congregation are earnest and simple-minded, and that the few who are not, are in the minority. I am, therefore, and in the extension of Christ's Kingdom, in this little section. The condition so painful and so unfortunate, and which has retarded the work of the church, seems to have been the result of the erroneous ideas of a few, who, however, I regret to say, have sought to impose their views on the majority of parishioners and also upon the clergyman with a persistence and by methods that cannot be commended."

RECTOR'S STATEMENT.
Up to Dec. 12 last, the trusteeship of the lot was vested in Messrs. Talbot, Sparkhall and Bray, who, as a matter of fact, the first mentioned had not been a member of the congregation for some considerable time. On Dec. 4 Messrs. Talbot, Sparkhall and Bray sent a communication to the rector and church wardens, in which they stated that interest and capital would have to be paid to the city in the following April, and they intimated that they had resolved to sell the lot and hand back to the original donors the amounts they had contributed. In consequence of this communication, a specially summoned vestry meeting was held on Dec. 13, at which the rector and church wardens were present. The rector pointed out to Messrs. Talbot, Sparkhall and Bray, who were present, that they were trustees for and responsible to the body that had appointed them, that is the vestry, whose money it was that had been paid on the lot, having been received under the authority of the church officials from different contributors. The solicitor also explained that the document sent to the rector and church wardens was such that he had been compelled to state, when asked for advice by the rector, that a writ should be issued. The rector read the declaration signed by Messrs. Talbot, Sparkhall and Bray, that they held the property in trust for the congregation, and would give a quit-claim when requested so to do. The rector then read the letter from Mr. Bray, stating that the reason the document had been sent to the rector and church wardens was a letter that had been received by them, and which he would ask Mr. Sparkhall to read. Mr. Sparkhall then read a letter from H. R. Frankland, demanding the

GOVERNMENT TO BE ASKED RE BIALISTOK MASSACRE

Lower House Will Also Send a Commission to Investigate the Matter.

St. Petersburg, June 15.—Disorders after having broken out at Bialistok this afternoon with even greater fury than characterized Thursday's riots. No despatches have been received to-night direct from Bialistok, where the telegraph office is closed, but semi-official messages from Grodno and Minsk report that the excesses were started again to-day by the throwing of several bombs. The crowds, according to these despatches, then opened fire on the police, which the troops replied to, and there was a constant interchange of shots between Jews from their houses and the soldiers from the streets.

A mob of peasants armed with clubs, scythes, etc., who had found their way into the city Thursday, was participating in the rioting.

M. Shtetel, a member of parliament from Ekaterinoslav, accompanied by several members of the lower house from the Jewish pale, called on M. Stuyppin, the minister of the interior, to-day regarding the anti-Jewish outbreak at Bialistok. They were informed by his aide-de-camp that order had been restored, and that about ten persons had been killed, but that the ministry had no information as to the number of wounded.

Subsequently M. Shtetel and his colleagues drafted interpellations for presentation in the lower house demanding to know what measures are being taken to prevent the destruction of the lives and property of Jews throughout the empire.

A series of speakers held the government directly responsible for the outbreak, declaring that the anti-Jewish hatred of the Russian masses was fiction, except when fomented by the authorities, and asserting that outbreaks never occurred except on their incitation or with their connivance.

The press is unanimous in its profound astonishment at the events in the lower house of parliament.

M. Alladin, leader of the peasant-workers group, openly boasted from the rostrum yesterday that the death of the ministers would be the country's rejoinder to the government's refusal to abolish the death penalty.

Some of the papers believe that yesterday's events definitely foreshadow the government's intention to dissolve the Duma, and to call for new elections. The Novoe Vremya, hitherto a thick and thin supporter of the government, is silent to-day.

CARRIED OVER THE FALLS.

Unknown Man Taken by Treacherous Current to His Death.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 15.—An unknown man was carried over the Horseshoe Falls this morning. He came down the river in a boat, but soon after he struck the White Horse Rapids the boat overturned, and he was thrown into the water. He was trying to direct his course so that he would land at the head of one of the islands, but was too far to the west when his boat capsized. The current, which sets across the river for the Horseshoe Falls, caught him, and then he had no chance. He struggled desperately with the waves, but made no headway, and was soon smothered in the foam of the rapids.

He passed within two hundred feet of the outer point of the island, and the death of the man should be his agonized face, and his arms waving in an appeal for succor, which no earthly power could afford.

Very likely he was fishing, and was carried down the river by the smooth but swift current before he realized his peril.

Osler Has Been Asked To Come to University

Only Obstacles to His Acceptance Are in the Way of an Increase in Salary and a Few Minor Conditions—
Expected That These Will Be Overcome.

That the delay in the announcement by the Ontario government of the new board of governors for the reorganized University of Toronto is occasioned through a delay in the coming to terms with Dr. William Osler, regius professor at Oxford University, to accept the presidency of the university, The World is credibly informed.

On best authority it is learned that Dr. Osler has been in receipt of a flattering invitation to accept the presidency of the university, and communications show that he is not unwilling to accept the proffered position.

The only obstacles to a completion of agreement now remaining are stated to be the matter of salary and in a few minor conditions which he stipulates shall be agreed to.

If an agreement is not reached in the meantime, it is expected that Premier Whitney and Hon. Dr. Pyne, minister of education, on their approaching visit to England, will see Dr. Osler and personally make terms.

That Dr. Osler would be probably the best selection that could possibly be made has long been the opinion of those interested in the well being of Toronto University, and it is understood that strong pressure has been—and will be—brought to bear to induce him to come to Toronto.

It has been said that the possibility of his receiving royal recognition by remaining at Oxford may have to be considered with, but it is felt that Dr. Osler's acceptance of the presidency of the University of Toronto might, after all, make little difference in that respect.

The great changes contemplated in hospital work in the city, in which the provincial government and the University of Toronto, too, are deeply interested, are an added reason for the choice resting on Dr. Osler.

YOUNG MINISTERS ADVISED BEFORE ENTERING ON WORK "ENEMY" ARE THE LOSERS IN FIRST DAY OF FIGHTING

Four Received by Conference—
Regulating of S.S. Library Books.

In the presence of a congregation which filled every available space and which listened with interest to every word from the rostrum, four young men, qualified in the conference, were received into full connection of the ministry of the Methodist Church last evening. Each of the ministers already has an assignment. Rev. Newton M. Bowles, B.A., B.D., who was previously ordained, goes to China; Rev. William Sibley, B.A., is also assigned to the Orient. Thos. Green, B.A., B.D., goes to the British Columbia conference, and A. W. Miller, who was also previously ordained, hopes to go to Japan in the near future.

Following the announcement of reception into the church by the president of the conference, the newly-received ministers rose in turn and spoke briefly, giving their experience and call to Christian ministry.

The principal speakers of the evening were Rev. Herman Moore of Weston and Rev. Thos. Barclay. Mr. Moore had special stress on the necessity of a minister being an ambassador, an evangelist, a watchman, a shepherd and a steward, because of the spiritual responsibilities which must be imputed with Christianity, sane, sensible and pure in all its relations to God.

The two ministers who had not been previously ordained, and who were received into the church last night—Thos. Green, B.A., B.D., and William Sibley, B.A.—will be ordained Sunday morning. The ordination of five others for special purpose will also take place Sunday. Their names are Richard E. Morton, Johnutherland, James H. Bury, D. Ray Gray, B.A., and Norman King.

At the afternoon session of the conference only routine business was transacted, and this was reported to committees without discussion.

In the morning Prof. Duxbury of Manchester, Eng., read from the Book of Job, after which Dr. A. C. Crews reported to the conference that he had caused to be eliminated from the Methodist Sunday school library all books having a semblance of untoward material which might work for harm to the school.

Dr. Briggs, steward of the Methodist Book Room, presented a statement which showed a substantial growth in his department.

In the educational department Dr. H. Potts reported an increase in receipts of over $30,000.

The financial statement of Victoria College, presented by Chancellor Bursaw, showed total receipts $1,142,751. Receipts for the year were $48,485.35; expenditures, $44,985.96.

Dr. Griffin, supernumerary secretary, reported an increase of $4000 in annuities, which was a normal advance. Four years ago there was a debt of $26,000, and now there is a surplus of $5000.

There will be a short session of the conference this morning. It is expected the conference will be able to finish their business and adjourn Wednesday afternoon sine die.
