FORBES GODFREY CHAMBERLAIN IS SWEEPS WEST YORK CLEAN HOME IN VERY YORK CLEAN BAD HEALTH

Carries By-Election for Legislature by Nearly 2400 Over Inde- pendent and Socialist.

Dr. Forbes Godfrey, Conservative, on Saturday was elected by a majority of about 2500 as member for West York in the legislature, his two opponents, Esten Williams, Independent, and F. J. Peel, Socialist, polling a ridiculously small vote.

Dr. Godfrey came out as a clean-cut advocate of the Beck work propa- ganda. In Vaughan he upset a Liberal stronghold, supposed to be impreg- nable.

He has the men of a fighter, the con- viction of a champion of the people, and from the outset his career in the house will be observed with interest.

The general tip is that Dr. Forbes Godfrey will wake up some of the back- benchers in more ways than one. On Saturday, the day of the by-election, he was all over the riding in his automobile. His aged father got the fever, and journeyed about addressing crowds and winding up at Bracondale. Early in the nature of the contest, he began to come into Dr. Godfrey's com- mittee-junction at 117 Dundas-street, Toronto, it was easily seen his election was sure from the start.

The doctor walked into the room about 6.30, and the crowd of workers there demanded a speech. Francis Trevelyan organized this district for the Conservative candidate, and the result showed the thoroughness of the work done by the party.

Will Work For the People.

Dr. Godfrey was delighted with the result. He came from Mimico in his automobile, in rubber coat and cap. He was met by an outburst of congratulatory applause. In response to the de- mands for a speech, Dr. Godfrey doffed his cap and, mounting a chair, said: "I hope I will do nothing in the com- ing session of parliament that will dis- grace the name of riding of York. I will do all that I said I would do in speech- making during my canvass. I will try to obtain for you, thru a general plebis- cite, the work done by the party. If I don't do anything else."

"I believe a great deal of the votes cast for me to-day is an endorsement of the Whitney-Beck power policy. Mr. Beck will find me behind him in that fight. I have obtained in my own home to- day a majority of over 400, very few voting against me, and to-day I have received 200 Liberal votes, and I thank these Liberals for sinking party to vote for me."

"I would like to have a speech from my Dad," the member-elect said, after thanking many Liberals for giving him their support.

The elder Godfrey, who had sat for nearly two hours in the committee room, noticing the results, responded.

All Tories.

Since the time of Charles I., Mr. Godfrey said, the Godfreys have been in Kerry, Ireland, they were the same. Sir William Godfrey had been a member of the English parliament, and the family was represented in the Irish parliament.

"I think we are sound in the faith," Mr. Godfrey said in the committee room.

Dr. Godfrey left in his automobile for Bracondale, where a meeting was held.

LITTLE BOY STRANGLES IN BOARDS OF FENCE

The young son of Robert Toffer of Humber Summit, a short distance south of Woodbridge, climbed a board fence on Friday afternoon, and in an endeavor to reach some cherry blossoms, put his head thru between the second and third boards of the fence and his feet slipping off the bottom board was caught by the neck and before help arrived was strangled. The little fellow was about two years and three months old, and the parents are prostrated. Mrs. Toffer was in the city at the time the accident occurred and returned to find her little son dead.

CHAMBERLAIN IS HOME IN VERY BAD HEALTH

Condition Shocks His Friends—Too Weak to Raise His Hat to Cheering Crowd.

LONDON, June 2.—After the recent re-assuring reports from St. Raphael, France, regarding the improvement in the health of Joseph Chamberlain, his arrival in England last night was somewhat of a shock to the friends and admirers who gathered to meet him both here and at Dover. Quite apart from the fatigue of the troublesome journey, which he bore well, it was evident that Mr. Chamberlain was still a long way from such recovery as to give hope of his resuming political life with any activity.

Mr. Chamberlain was accompanied by his wife and son, Neville. When the train arrived at the Victoria station he was weak on the cushions, seemingly almost breathless. He made no effort to rise until he was assisted by his wife and son, and it was remarked that he made a vain attempt to raise his hat in response to a cheer from the small crowd at the station.

Mr. Chamberlain was almost carried from the train to his carriage. He drove immediately to his London residence. It seems that he is quite un- able to walk by himself. Mr. Cham- berlain's face was much bronzed, but certain twitchings of the facial muscles suggested that the effects of his recent seizure have not yet been completely shaken off.

In response to enquiries, the family authorized the following statement: "Mr. Chamberlain has returned much improved in health and none the worse for the long journey. He has not yet made any plans, but will certainly re- main in London for a time."

BALLOONIST STRUCK BY LIGHTNING IN MID-AIR

Tragic Incident Takes Place at Review of Troops Before King Victor Emmanuel.

ROME, June 2.—A tragic incident took place during a review to-day of the troops of Victor Emmanuel and Queen Helena. As a part of the man- oeuvres, a military balloon was sent up to a height of 700 feet, with Ullivelli in the car.

A storm which had been coming up burst suddenly, and the thousands of spectators were horrified to see a flash of lightning strike the gas bag. There was an enormous burst of flame and a terrific detonation and the collapsed balloon, with its dangling car, fell to the ground over a mile from the scene of the review.

Crowds of persons, afoot and in autos and other conveyances, rushed in the direction where the balloon had fallen. Ullivelli was found alive, but unconscious. He was placed in an auto and rushed to a hospital, where he died without regaining consciousness.

King Victor Emmanuel and the military authorities went to the hospital after the review to enquire concerning him.

JUDGE BOUND TO START HAYWOOD CASE AT ONCE

Only One More Jurer Needed— Prisoner Has Somewhat Re- covered.

BOISE, Idaho, June 2.—The work of obtaining a jury in the case of William D. Haywood, charged with the murder of ex-Governor Steunenberg, will be resumed to-morrow morning, unless the prisoner has a relapse. To-day, altho a little drawn and pale, as a result of the medicine and the opiates given him to relieve his pain, he appeared to be in his normal condition. He was out early in front of the court- house and walked in the sun.

Judge Freeman Wood has said that he is determined a jury shall be obtained to-morrow, if possible. Forty-four talesmen remain of the venire of sixty-one summoned last week.

FRIDAY NOT A BARRIER TO ENTERTAINING PRINCE.

QUEBEC, June 2.—Lieutenant-Governor and Lady Jette have issued invita- tions to a dinner and reception to be given at Spencer Wood in honor of Prince Fushimi on Friday, June 7.

This dinner and reception, having necessarily to take place on Friday, a special dispensation from abstaining has been asked for and granted by the ordinary of the diocese.

ADDITIONAL GUARDS FOR THE FUSHIMI RECEPTION.

OTTAWA, June 2.—Military orders state that an additional guard of honor will be required at Toronto on the de- parture of Prince Fushimi.

The Japanese hymn, "Kimigayo," is to be played where "God Save the King" would be played at the reception of a member of the royal family.

Snow Falls in New York On First Sunday in June

Pleasure Trips Abandoned and People Remain Indoors—Coney Island Was Practically Deserted.

NEW YORK, June 2.—Snow fell in New York on this the first Sunday in the summer month of June. The flakes did not fall as snow all the way to the pavements, but coming from a colder strata of air, they swirled about the tops of skyscrapers and before dis- solving added a midwinter touch to the most remarkable June 2 that New Yorkers have known.

The warmest moment of the day was 12.05 a.m., when the temperature was officially recorded as 51 degrees. At 10.20 a.m. the mercury had dropped to 45. At 8 o'clock to-night it had risen to 47.

At the local weather bureau, where a conservative view is always taken, the day was admitted to be the coldest recorded here for the second of June.

A stiff breeze, accompanied with a heavy rainfall, prevailed throughout the day, which was about as cheerless as could be imagined. Holiday excursions generally were abandoned, and the pleasure resorts were without patrons.

Gale Sweeps City.

The day broke with a fresh gale that swept over the city with startling ef- fect. At an early hour the wind at- tained a velocity of 50 miles an hour. The brunt of the blast was felt in the Bronx, where a two-story half com- pleted frame house was torn apart and its timbers scattered for a block. The watchman of the building, Hel- ler Rubenstein, owes his escape from death to the temerity that led him outdoors for a first hand observation of the elements just before the house crumbled.

In the same vicinity several trees were uprooted, while others lost their branches. Along the Bronx Park and on the airport-road, fences were laid flat and stone blown down from business buildings. On Third-avenue, a row of workmen's shanties were wrenched one of shanty.

Coney Island Deserted.

As a holiday the Sunday was lost. A week ago 150,000 persons visited Coney Island to-day the place was deserted. The only suggestion of sum- mer was the open trolley cars, which carried well bundled up shivering thousands unfortunate enough to be called from home.

For the first time since the resort was established, not a boat put out for Coney Island, and one steamer company, which reckons on 25,000 pas- sengers every June Sunday, was out completely. This is but a single instance of the losses incident to the recent unseasonable weather, and which it is estimated will amount to millions of dollars in greater New York alone. Scarcely any business, but has been injured.

Mountain Summits Covered.

The summits of North Mountain and High-pick are covered with snow to-night, as the result of two heavy squalls to-day. Snow fell in Tar- zell Park and Hester's Falls here this morning with temperature at 39 de- grees.

WITNESS IN EMMERSON CASE LOSES HIS JOB

John Lloyd, Oldest Employee of St. Lawrence Hall, Montreal, Dis- charged by Proprietor.

MONTEREAL, June 2.—(Special.)—Mr. Higgins of the St. Lawrence Hall dismissed John Lloyd, witness in the Emerson libel suit, upon his return from Fredericton. Lloyd was connect- ed with the hall for over thirty-six years, and had been night clerk for a long time, and was one of the late Henry Hogan's most trusted employes.

Mr. Higgins, who was seen this evening, admitted that he had dispensed with Lloyd's services, but denied that the Fredericton trip had anything to do with it.

LAURIER LED THE CHEERS WHICH GREETED GEN. BOTHA

(Canadian Associated Press Cable).
LONDON, June 2.—The Earl of Car- ington, replying to a speech by Lord Milner, who criticized the radical policy in the Transvaal, contrasted it with the attitude of Laurier.

Carlington stated that when he pre- sided at the National Liberal Club banquet to the colonial premier, Lau- rier led the cheers which greeted Botha, and waved his napkin, and when the cheers subsided, said to him: "No nation in the world could have had so plucky or brave a policy ex- cept one, and that was old England."

The sixth standing of candidates in the Trip to London Contest, as it was on Saturday at midnight, is given above.

For the second time, Miss Ida Van- demark has managed to overcome the lead of Miss McGregor, and is now in the first position. It is very close between these two candidates. It was not known until the last hour who was in the lead. Separated in their occupa- tions by less than one hundred yards, these two candidates are setting a ter- rific pace.

There have been quite a number of changes in the standing of candidates since last week. Miss Mabel Hodgson has passed Miss Rhoda Gardiner, and is now in sixth place, and Miss Nellie Sabine has passed Miss Della Harmer, the St. Charles' candidate. Miss Vir- tue is more than holding her own. A number of the candidates are working harder, and during the coming week will doubtless bring forth surprises.

In district No. 2 (the City of Ham- iltion), Miss Minnie E. Corner, the Sla- ter Shoe Store representative, closed the week with a rush, and leads Miss Board by nearly fifty thousand votes. It was common rumor in Hamilton all during the past week that Miss Corner had a large vote in reserve, and this prophecy was realized. As an evidence of the interest taken in the Trip to London Contest in Hamilton, the Hamilton Leather Goods Co. have donated a steamer truck for the successful candidate.

In district No. 3 (the Province of Ontario at large), the interest in the battle of ballots is increasing as each day passes. The contest is widening in scope, and now includes all portions of the province. Miss S. McDonald has been nominated by Mayor Ken- nedy of Owen Sound, and during the coming week she will undoubtedly poll a very large vote. Nominations have been received from Peterboro, Na- panee, Collingwood and other places.

The fact that each candidate has her own particular constituency, and is dangerous, is proven by the entry of Miss Sarah Flanagan of Kingston. Miss Flanagan was nominated the first of the week, entered the contest with a determination to succeed, in three days polled 46,757 votes, and is now in tenth place.

To each and every candidate, and to the women of Ontario at large, deter- mination and perseverance are the only necessary ingredients for a vic- tory in the Trip to London Contest. There is plenty of time for you to en- ter the race and make a success. BUT THERE IS NOTHING TO BE GAINED BY DELAY.
