GERMAN PRESS MORE QUIET
 Convinced That Britain Intends to be Fair, the Comments Are More Sensible.

RUSSIA ASKS FOR A REVISION
 Of Maritime Law—Portuguese Shippers Using French Instead of German Vessels.

Berlin, Jan. 18.—The German press adopts a more quiet tone regarding the seizure of German vessels by British warships, printing with satisfaction extracts of a similar trend from London papers. Owing to the prospect of a speedy settlement, satisfactory to Germany, to-morrow's interpellation is expected to be calm and non-sensational.

The Berliner Tagblatt is informed from St. Petersburg that the Russian government is trying to get the support of the French Cabinet for calling an international congress to revise maritime law and to justify the idea of contraband.

The owners of the Lusitania, which was stopped in South African waters on December 19th by the British gunboat Paros, and ordered to go to Port Elizabeth to be unloaded, were informed that the cargo would be taken as soon as the search of her cargo had been completed, assuming that no contraband was found.

The paper prints a Lisbon despatch announcing that many Portuguese shippers have revoked contracts by the German East African Line, owing to the seizures. They point out that the effect of this is to favor the competing French line, which has not been molested.

EVERY DUTCHMAN PRO-BOER.
 The London Times Correspondent Shows Up the Afrikaner Disloyalty—Schreiner's Position.

London, Jan. 19.—The Cape Town correspondent of the Times discussing Afrikaner disloyalty says: "I believe the sympathy of every Dutchman in South Africa is with the two Republics, and that a general rising is still quite possible. However, there is nothing to implicate the Bond party as a whole in an official organized conspiracy against the Imperial Government, altho the Bond leaders have winked at or pardoned to sedition in order to preserve their popularity."

PERSEVERANT VICTORY NEEDED.
 "The British failures and the appearance of the Boers on British territory have weakened rebellion, but even now, a decisive British victory would prevent its further spread."

What Schreiner is Doing.
 This correspondent testifies to the value of the services rendered by Mr. Schreiner, the Cape Premier, who is in an embarrassing position. He speaks less highly of Mr. Hofmeyr, the real leader of the Bond party and severely condemns the Dutch press of the colony, which, he says, "is doing its utmost, with keeping on the windy side of the law, to promote rebellion and to envenom racial antagonism."

DUTCH PRESS DANGEROUS.
 False News is Put Out in Cape Colony to Stir Up the Rebellion—A Lie Nailed.

Cape Town, Jan. 19.—What the British designate as a "dastardly lie" was exposed to-day. After the battle of Modder River the entire colonial Dutch press published a story about the murder of 80 Boers by the Argyl and Sutherland Highlanders. This caused so much excitement that the Premier of Cape Colony, Mr. Schreiner, asked Gen. Methuen about the report. Gen. Methuen positively denied the story, and the Premier thereupon wrote to the editor of the Cape News, acquainting him with Gen. Methuen's denial and asking his authority for the original story.

The editor of the News replied that his informant was the head of an important financial enterprise in Cape Town, and he would not give his name. He went on to say that this gentleman received his information from an engineer-driver, who had witnessed the murder. When subsequently asked to disclose the name of the engineer-driver, the editor refused to do so.

To-day the editor makes this statement: "My informant states to-day that he has heard from his original informant that what really happened was this: A party of Boers stood outside a house and fired into the advancing troops, who supposed all the Boers had left. Another company of British troops approached from behind and shot the Boers, which, as you know, was justifiable under the rules of war. I have done my best to reach the source of the original statement, but regret to say that I have been unable to succeed."

The correspondence was published by Prime Minister Schreiner. The English say this is a fair sample of the manner in which idle reports are published by the Dutch press, for the purpose of working up feeling against the English among the colonial Dutch. The Onland and News are the worst offenders in this respect.

Kipling Going to Cape Town.
 London, Jan. 19.—Mr. Rudyard Kipling and his family will sail for Cape Town to-morrow (Saturday).

Boers Blowing Up Culverts.
 Sterkstroom, Jan. 18.—Yesterday the Boers blew up three culverts on the Dordrecht line, five miles beyond an outpost of the police camp. The commando at Dordrecht numbers 1000.

FREE STATERS IN BAD SHAPE.
 Defective Transport Leaves Them Without Food for Days—They Are Quarrelsome.

London, Jan. 18.—The correspondent of the Times at Lorenzo Marques, telegraphing yesterday, says: "An old British resident in the Boer Republic who has just been expelled informs me that 10 per cent. of the Free State commandos are Britishers, or British born, who have been compelled to go to the front. The Boers are so disheartened and disappointed that he predicts that a single big reverse would be followed by a wholesale dispersal of the Free Staters, who are disgusted with the Transvaalers."

Free Staters in Bad Shape.
 "They have no money, and no food stuffs, except unground wheat and meals in the Free State, and the payment of officials' salaries has been suspended. In consequence of defective transport, the men at the front often go for days without food."

Boers in Natal Quarrelsome.
 "A correspondent of The Standard and Diggers' News says that the Boers in Natal are quarrelsome, cantankerous, overreary of waiting and of the hardships of camp life, and that they criticize their generals. Portuguese Officials Crocked."

"Information from Pretoria says the Boer Government refuses to accept the claim for licenses made by absentee Outlanders. It is difficult to trust to the efficiency of Portuguese control over goods passing thru here to the Transvaal. There is little doubt that goods are smuggled over the border, but it is impossible to say whether these are contraband, owing to the fact that the Boer agents command unlimited money, and that the Portuguese officials can easily be bribed or hoodwinked."

BULLER MUST FIGHT FIRST
 Before Rumors of the Relief of Ladysmith by His Force Can Be Believed.

London, Jan. 18.—A Cape Town special despatch, dated to-day, says it is persistently reported there that Ladysmith has been relieved.

Where General Buller is.
 London, Jan. 18.—The rumors from Cape Town that Ladysmith is already relieved are apparently ahead of the facts. In any case, Lord Roberts, whose report was despatched this morning, was not aware of it, and his dates preclude the possibility that the troops mentioned in his despatch have so soon reached the beleaguered town.

There are some discrepancies in the telegrams, the whole tenor of the news points to Gen. Buller's second advance having begun with good prospects of success, but it is generally recognized that with an enemy so resourceful as the Boers have proved themselves to be, it is idle to indulge in overconfidence. The net result, so far as we know, is that Gen. Buller occupies two commanding positions north of the Tugela River, thereby securing at least two crossings, by which he can bring up necessary reinforcements.

Fighting Must Come First.
 London, Jan. 19.—(12.30 a.m.)—At midnight the War Office announced that it had no further news for publication. When questioned with regard to the rumored British victory and the relief of Ladysmith, the officials replied that they had received no information to bear out either feature of the rumor, and were inclined to think that serious fighting must precede the relief of the town.

BOERS KILL A LITTLE GIRL.
 Deliberately Shelled the Women's Larder at Mafeking With Nine-Pounder Shots.

London, Jan. 18.—The following despatch has been received from Mafeking, under date of Jan. 3:

"The enemy began a renewed and vigorous bombardment Jan. 1, and deliberately fired six nine-pounder shots into the women's larder, killing a little girl, and wounding two children. The strategical position is unchanged."

"Col. Baden-Powell sent a strong protest to Commandant Symon, against shelling the women's larder."

"Two miles killed by a shell were eaten by the Kafirs."

BOER WOMEN MUST LEAVE.
 General Gatacre Gives Fair Warning to the Boer Commandant That They Take Chances.

Sterkstroom, Wednesday, Jan. 17.—General Gatacre has warned the Boer commandant that if their women are not removed, they must take their chance of being shot, in the event of an attack. All is quiet here.

SMALLPOX BREAKS OUT
 In the Boer Camps in Natal—Orders Calling Out Rifle Associations Cancelled.

London, Jan. 18.—The Durban correspondent of The Standard, telegraphing Tuesday, says: "The Government has cancelled the orders calling out the rifle associations for active service."

"It is reported that smallpox has broken out in the Boer camps in Natal."

THE DISLOYAL CAPE MINISTRY.
 Only One Man Went to Meet Lord Roberts and Lord Kitchener on Arrival.

London, Jan. 18.—The Cape Town correspondent of The Daily Telegraph, telegraphing Jan. 18, says:

"Atkinson-General Solomon, who went to meet Lord Roberts and Lord Kitchener, informed his colleagues in the Cape Cabinet that if none of them went he would not refrain from going. All declined. Mr. Schreiner (the Premier) sent his secretary, Mr. Solomon was hooded by the crowd, but his action is now approved. Lords Roberts and Kitchener have taken buildings for permanent offices."

HAS THE TIDE NOW TURNED?
 War Office Satisfied That the News Henceforth Will Be of a More Hopeful Character.

London, Jan. 19.—The officials of the War Office here are satisfied that the tide has turned in Natal, and that news of a more hopeful character from a British point of view will henceforth be the rule instead of the exception. The British advance in a northerly direction will be fiercely resisted is fully anticipated. The Boer force is probably superior to the British, and the despatches show the burghers occupy strong positions.

Is Warren at Spraken?
 There is some doubt as to whether the Spraken occupied by Gen. Warren is identical with Spraken. If so, the British are within a few miles of Acton Homes, the scene of the carrier conflicts between Gen. White's forces and the invading Free Staters, whence there is a good road direct to Ladysmith.

Boers Fired on Advance Guard.
 While Gen. Warren's forces were crossing the Tugela River, the Boers occupied a thickly-wooded plantation a mile north of the river, and sent several volleys into the advance guard. The British replied, and the artillery opened on a neighboring kopje. As the British pushed across the river, the Boers fired their position unobscured, and retired to the hills.
