ONTARIO SHEEP RAISING.

In the International Live Stock show, to be held at Chicago this week, there is one class in which the Province of Ontario is expected to carry off all the honors. We refer to the Lincoln sheep class, in which this country is said to be the only exhibitor. And it is also worthy of note that in the Leicester sheep class four of the six entries are from Ontario, the two others coming from Michigan and Nebraska.

And the fact of these exhibits reminds us that this province should possess a greater sheep raising industry than it does at present. According to a well posted Canadian live stock man, the County of Haliburton and the districts of Muskoka and Nipissing, abounding as they do in lakes and streams, constitute an ideal country for the raising of sheep and young cattle, and the same may be said of certain still more northerly sections of Ontario, than which new railways are projected. The Ontario government is preparing to open up the Lake Temiskaming country with the "iron horse," but would it not also be a good move on the part of the Minister of Agriculture to furnish certain parts of the immense districts referred to with well bred rams from Canadian breeders, so that at the start the settlers of New Ontario would be encouraged to raise remunerative stock.

We imagine that that great sheep-breeding country, Australia, which has suffered so much from the drought, would give almost anything for the well watered grazing lands of Northern Ontario, and yet we make very little use of them.

SAVE YOUR PENNIES.

The necessity of individual thrift and economy is an important feature of Mr. Booker T. Washington's message to his own race on this continent. He lays great stress upon the fact that every one who has a little property or get a bank account will under way, thereby make a great stride towards attaining the respect of the world at large.

This advice may well be accepted by the black of the north, as well as the black of the south, and it may likewise be taken to heart with advantage to themselves by the poorer classes of white people all over the continent, in Canada as well as in the States. As Mr. Washington tersely puts it, many people place too much importance upon the get-rich-ways, upon the superlatives of life, such as fine clothes and the like. If every man and woman dressed and lived well within their means, a surprising betterment in the condition of the masses would speedily take place. The individual who takes care to put by out of his earnings every week as much as he can—be it ever so little—finds himself in a remarkably short space of time on the high road to independence. The first hundred dollars is the hardest to get, and it is a curious reflection on the improvidence of man that he has comparatively few who reach that hundred.

The man who once secures a little bank account becomes veritably a new creature. The acquisition of even a small financial backing develops in him a self-respect and self-reliance not previously experienced by him, the habit of thrift grows upon him, and before he knows it he is in an independent position.

It is especially important that the young men and women, the rising generation of boys and girls, should adopt the saving habit. If they deny themselves a little at the start, before they have a week or month, they are likely by the time they reach middle life to be able to snap their fingers at the best of their fellow citizens.

WAGES NOW AND IN 1897-98.

Judging from a despatch published in this paper, Mr. W. L. McKenzie King, Deputy Minister of Labor at Ottawa, is preparing a table of statistics, showing the increase in the cost of living that has taken place since the beginning of the present era of prosperity. If so, the public will await with interest the publication of the report.

And, meantime, we may scan the results of similar investigations recently completed in the United States, by the New York World, in many instances that have a bearing on the situation disclosed the following facts:

1. That $1.24 to-day buys about the same amount of necessities of life as were bought for $1 four years ago.
2. That to offset this 24 per cent, increase in the cost of living there has been no rise in wages in many industries and callings, a rise averaging 15 per cent. in the wages of skilled labor; a rise of 5 to 10 per cent. in several manufacturing industries.
3. That the "real wages" of the family with only one bread-winner are, therefore, less by from 25 to 24 per cent. than they were in the less prosperous times of 1897-98.
4. That the "real wages" of families with two or more bread-winners

In the Spring 10,000 Colonists Are Expected to Arrive Every Month.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—A Tribune special from Winnipeg says: To the Canadian colonist all roads lead to Winnipeg. Here is the gateway of the new Dominion, fondly believed to be a second Chicago—25 years ago it was a bustling, busy, energetic city, the centre of a great grain and grazing country, full to the brim with picturesque and diversified life.

Even now, when the temperature demands the wearing of heavy coats, the immigration of the States continues to pour in. From the States come agricultural prospectors—weather-beaten men in great coats and fur hats, who enter Winnipeg and then go to the interior of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and Assiniboia on 30-day inspection trips.

They are in search of homesteads and good railroad lands. Every day the incoming trains bring them from across the border. The American Colonization Society, which is in the hands of the immigration agents, is buying land from the Indians who were given tracts in settlement by the government. The land is sold to the homeseekers at the government price, but the homeseekers take the land at once, and will send for their families in the spring.

If a homeseeker for anything, these immigrants represent a good type of the American Colonization Society. They are the best class of settlers the Dominion has. Now and then there is an artisan, now and then a farmer, but the majority are men of the soil.

It indicates another period in the development of the country that the homeseekers are the best class of settlers the Dominion has. Now and then there is an artisan, now and then a farmer, but the majority are men of the soil.

Many Nationalities Represented. Different nationalities have segregated themselves in the various portions of the Dominion. Here in Winnipeg they speak of the homeseekers as "the new immigrants."
