HUGH CAMERON,

The chief event of interest during the past year was the celebration of the Jubilee of the congregation, when we were favoured by the presence of a delegate from the Free Church of Scotland, in the person of the Rev. James Wells, D.D., of Pollokshields, Glasgow, whose fraternal greetings and addresses were very highly appreciated by all.

In connection with this celebration a minute was entered in the Session records of September 3rd, and as it is of general interest, it is here inserted:—

“The Session would put on record the fact that since its last meeting the Jubilee commemoration of the congregation has been held. The Rev. James Wells, D.D., of Pollokshields, Glasgow, a deputy from the Free Church of Scotland, arrived in the city on Thursday evening, May twenty-fourth, and preached at the preparatory service before the communion on Friday evening. On Sabbath, May twenty-seventh, the Rev. D. H. MacVicar, D.D., LL.D., second pastor of the congregation, now Principal of the Presbyterian College, Montreal, preached in the morning from Deuteronomy 8: 2.—“And thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, to know whether thou wouldst keep His commandments or no.” In the course of his address he gave a number of details in regard to the history of the congregation.
