ROSS RIFLE A SUCCESS

NIAGARA CAMP, June 17 .- (Special.)-If the experience of the raw recruits, who were sent to the rifle ranges to-day, is kept up thr uthe entire camp, the Ross rifle may redeem itself. Less than 90 per cent. of the men failed to score the requirement necessary to attain the efficiency extra which gives first year recruits 20 cents per day additional to the regular half dollar; second year men 40 cents, and three or more years in the service, 50

To-day was the first time the Ross arm was ever in the hands of a militia corps. The shooting was done by detachments of the 12th York, 20th Halton and 44th Lincoln regiments, and the 9th Mississauga Horse.

The maximum, or "possible," over the two distances is 70, with 50 per cent. to qualify. The light was good, but the wind was variable and troublesome.

In conclusion he said: "Altho there has existed a wide diversity of opinion among the various companies in regard to the manner of charging for power, it is my opinion that this is fast disappearing and that power customers are becoming divided naturally into certain definite classes. I prefer the sliding scale contract, where power from waterfalls is concerned, on the ground that it offers greater induce-ments in raising the load factor. Fortunately there has been, so far, no legislation in the Dominion regarding rates for electric light or power, and it would seem that the members of the Canadian Electrical Association should be on the alert to forestall and prevent such legislation, by so adjusting their rates of charging that no inequality or unfairness can be claimed, as legislation is almost certain to be detrimental to power companies."
