Lindsay won the toss and took the kick, playing south, with little wind. The visitors made a succession of rushes and carried the ball to Parkdale's 20-yard line, itors made a succession of rushes and carried the ball to Parkdale's 20-yard line, but lost the pigskin in the mix-up. The cancelsts' heavier line made itself felt, and play was carried back to centre, where Warwick got away for a nice run, being downed a few yards out. Duncan went over on the first down. J. Dissette failed to convert. Score, 5 to 0. There was no more scoring in the first quarter. The play in the second quarter was in Lindsay's territory practically all the time, but the stubborn defence of the visitors was something of a surprise. The hard and slippery field made fast work out of the question and mass playing was largely resorted to by both teams. Parkdale's speedy halves probably suffered more by the conditions than did the visitors' back line.

The only feature of the quarter was a fifty-yard run by B. Green, Lindsay's right half, be securing the ball behind the goal line on an attempt by Killaly to drop a goal from quarter mark, and covering half the length of the field before being

The whistle blew with the half-time score still 5 to 0.

Parkdale started to rush matters at the opening of the third quarter. An exchange of punts carried the oval to Lindsay's line, but Green relieved by a fine 25-yard run: Lindsay lost the ball on downs and Parkdale's halves combined in a run, which brought the play 10 yards out. On the third down McKella was shoved over for a try. Dissette again failed to convert. Score 10 to 0.

before a small crowd. The field was covered with snow and was frozen hard. The teams lined up:

Parkdale—Back, Warwick; halves, Wagner, Killaly, Cromar; quarter, Dissette; scrimmage, Addison, Leonard, Duncan; wings, F. Dissette, Rankin, Dickinson, Meghan, McKellar, Thomson, Parkdale continued to play rings around their opponents, rushing the play to the line with ease. Frank Dissette again went over. The try was converted. Score 27 to 0. Game ended with play at The referee stated after the game that the second try would be disallowed on a foul, making the score 22 to nothing.

Saturday special was-J.C. CORE 2 to 1, WON

Word of this one's fine form must have become suddenly known, as J. C. Core never figured to be this price on his recent races. He won all the way under a pull.

LAST WEEK There were a couple of bad days, but only bad racing luck beat us. As my many clients will verify, the horses I wired in were every one right on edge and ran winning races, but were either interfered with or got off badly.

THIS WEEK i will make one special effort to make every day a winning day. Remember, I am the man on the job and I know of some real good things that are coming off this week, so don't fail to string along and get the dough.
