NORTH TORONTO.

NORTH TORONTO, July 11.—(Special.)—General regret is expressed around town at the retirement of Rev. Canon Powell from the position of rector of St. Clement's Church, which he has filled with infinite credit to himself and advantage to the whole community. Not alone in his ministerial, but along educational lines will be greatly missed.

Rev. G. B. McLeod, pastor of Deer Park, is spending his six weeks' holidays in the Georgian Bay district.

EAST TORONTO.

A report in an evening paper saying that the firemen were slow in getting to the blaze at 188 Main-street late Friday night, is indignantly denied. As a matter of fact, the Eas Toronto a widow and one daughter, Mrs. Hoffer. Heart trouble was given as the

These were the words which Mrs. These were the words which Mrs. have secured a building permit for the erection of their new church at the Rainey, heard Russell Dumas utter as he entered her house, where he and his wife and sister-in-law roomed, a day or so before his adopted child, Walter Brown, then lying sick, died under suspicion of strychnine poisoning. This evidence was given by Rainey at the inquest opened by Coroner G. W. Graham at the morgue last night, and which was later adjourned for a week. Electrician Meets With Bad Accident

While at His Work.

John Taylor, 246 Euclid-avenue, in the Confederation Life Building, had his leg taken off at the knee last evening at 8.15 while endeavoring to splice an electric connection in the elevator Gordon, both of McCormack-avenue in York Township. The evidence went to show that while Rowntree had given Gordon a jab in the jaw, there was a good deal of provocation, the plaintiff's cows trampling over Rowntree's flower beds and doing other feats calculated to arouse hard feeling. Magistrate Ramsden handed out a lot of good friendly advice together with the decision.

The connection in the elevator weights. The accident was witnesed by no one, but C. W. Perkins, janitor of the building, had wanted Taylor just before the accident not to start working on the connection in the well unless he was present. Taylor believed that the elevators were not running, and thought he could go on with the job, but the weights of the ascending on the Tuesday before the child died. He was suspicious from the start and his suspicions were confirmation.
