SATURDAY MORNING 10

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

THE ROBINS PLAYERS

It is safe to assume that no play produced in years by any stock company, on any stage, will create more favorable comment than "Romance," which is to be presented by Edward H. Robins and the Robins players at the Alexandra for next week, which will be the sixth week of their present "Romance" is the biggest sucseason. cess in England today, where it has been running at the one theatre for over two years.

For this production Mr. Robins has had sent from England, photographic cuts of the scenery and properties used in the production there and for the costuming old fashion plates of the time are being used.

THE MASQUE OF LIFE

When every newspaper of New York praises a film production, and even the trade papers of filmdom rival each other in saying splendid things about a picture, one may be sure that it is "worth while". This very thing has occurred with "The Masque of Life," marvellous seven-reel spectacle Opera House next week, twice daily.

THE SUBMARINE EVE

The Williamson Brothers' famou sub-sea pictures will be presented at the Grand Opera House, commencing Monday, June 11. These feature pictures, under the title of "The Submarine Eye" have created a sensation in New York.

LOEW'S

"Mr. Chaser," the latest musical comedy farce, taken from the book of Ned Dandy, will be the headline aton at Loew's Theatre and Winter Canden all next week. The act is said to be one of the best that have ever played the Loew's circuit. The feature photo-production stars 7 Miss Genevieve Hamper, who has had r an enviable success on the legitimate stage. The balance of the vaudeville offering will include Lillian and Boggs, presenting something new in dancing; Lice Cole, a dainty miss, with won derful tenor voice; Hudler, Stein and New Westminster, Phillips in their new offering "Steps of Harmony"; Will and Kemp, the eccentric acrobatic funsters and others complete the bill.

THE HIPPODROME

A feature picture that makes an war veterans' club. The association insistent appeal is "Womanhood, the brught $72 worth of wool to be distri-Giory of the Nation," J. Stuart Black- buted amongst the members. Over Thompson Old Homestead Octet will tal at Beachborough Park. A whe monorgist, in new songs and stories,

"MISTER 44" AT STRAND For the first half of next week there will be presented at the Strand Theatre "Mister 44," a fine Metro production, in five big acts. This is a photo-play compact of courage, dar ing and adventure, and with a clean, virile, out-of-door atmosphere. Har-old Lockwood and May Allison are the co-stars, and never have they had a vehicle giving them greater opportunities.

"SACRIFICE" AT MADISON

are two clever mirth provokers, and are ably assisted in their work by James Francis and Max Hyman.

The .headliner at the Madison Theatre for the first half of next week will be the enthralling Lasky produc-"Sacrifice," starring Margaret War is the theme and love Illington. s the background of this exceptionally fine photo-drama, which reveals the beautiful star at her best.

ARENA-SPECIAL FEATURES.

The patrons of the Arena are to be given an exceptional treat on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings in witnessing Mr. Randall and Miss Myer. Mr. Randall is considered by New York critics to be the leading man dancer in America, having been featured in the Follies, at Wallack's and at the gambols of the Lambs Club. Miss Myer was one of the principals with Ruth St. Denis, and is very well known. The Arena will be open every evening from 3 to 12. I.O.D.E. CONVENTION CALLS FOR WIDER CONSCRIPTION

The Daughters of the Empire in convention in Victoria, B.C., have sent a resolution to Sir Robert Borden endorsing conscription and asking that the act be extended to include money, labor and service of every man and Mrs. A. E. Gooderham has been re-elected national president. The other Toronto officers were also given another term. The officers are: Presi-dent, Mrs. Gooderham: vice-presidents, Mrs. E. F. B. Johnston, Toronto; Mrs.

McClimont, Quebec; Lady Mackenzie Toronto, and Mrs. W. R. Riddell, To-ronto; secretary, Mrs. Auden, Toronto; reasurer, Mrs. John Bruce, Toronto; organizing secretary, Mrs. Murray Clark, Toronto; educational secretary Mrs. George H. Smith, St. Catharines; bearer, Mrs. H. R. Fraser, standard
