For conspicubravery at Ypres he was awarded distinguished service order. Altho he had taken part in many fights during his fifteen months' service in France, Capt. Nash had come thru them all unscathed. A shell struck left gave signal for a furious drive on our defenses in this section. Thirty seconds after the explosion of the mines our artillery was in action and thruout the engagement gave inspiring and effective support to the infantry. After a little over an hour's bombardment the German fire was lifted from our front trenches to points in rear and the assaults were delivered.
