

The Association is enabled to offer, through the liberality of the McGill University, prizes for competition, under the following conditions :

Regulations for the Disposal of the "Hannah Willard Lyman Memorial Fund."

1. The income to be divided into two equal prizes, to be given to the regular students, who, having passed creditably in the subjects of Examination before Christmas, shall take the highest marks in the First Class, in the Written Examinations, in one of the subjects at the end of the Session.
2. The Lecturers to be Examiners, and the answers of the successful candidates to be transmitted to the Corporation of the University, with the reports of the Examiners.
3. The prizes to be given in books, properly inscribed.

In April, 1875, the Corporation of McGill University passed the further regulation :—

"Any student having taken one of the Prizes may compete in a subsequent Session, but not in the same subject in which the previous Prize was taken; and in no case shall more than two Prizes be awarded to the same student."

Owing to the number of lectures having been reduced to forty, the following amendment was passed at a meeting of the Committee, May 3rd, 1877 :—

"Candidates will be required to have passed creditably in all the subjects of the Session."

As a further and gratifying proof of the recognition of the Association by the University, an extract is given from the McGill Calendar of 1879-80, under the "Regulations for the Higher Examination of Women" :—

"In the Optional subjects, the examinations under the Ladies' Educational Association of Montreal, when held by Professors or Examiners of the University and certified by them as equivalent to subjects stated above, may be accepted by Examiners in any subject or portion of a subject."

For the Session 1883-84 the names of 39 students were entered; 27 came up for one or more examinations; 47
