FINE PROGRAM IS GIVEN TO AID POOR

Delightful Concert in Trinity School Room is Excellent Event

In aid of the poor of the city, one of the most delightful of the concerts recently held, was given last evening in Trinity church school room through the interest of Miss Louise Knight, who arranged the program and was herself star performer among a group of talented musicians.

of talented musicians.

The orchestra of the Montclare assisted and its brilliant rendering of "In a Monastery Garden" and "No, 'In a Monastery Garden' and "No, No, Nanette," called forth hearty ap-plause, and in acknowledging the fine reception accorded the ships' orchestra, the leader assured the audience that the members would be glad at any time to help the worthy causes of the community by taking part in entertainments while in port. The younger musicians and Miss Knight's own pupils were chiefly re-presented among the singers and they greatly pleased the large audience. Miss A. Steeves, Miss F. Withers, Mrs. Charles Kee, Mrs. Percy Steel, Mrs. Clyde Johnson and Mrs. A. E. Ellis were heard in the three part songs, "Under the Greenwood Tree," "Under All the Treetops," and "In These Delightful Pleasant Groves." Miss Withers sang "All in a Lily-White Gown"; ies and red hearts, and there were red its and red hearts, and there were red Arthur Long sang "The Robber King";
