

THE EVENING TIMES-STAR, ST. JOHN, N.B., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1924

PRESENTATIONS TO SISTER AND BROTHER

Children of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Robbins are Honored.

More than 40 officers, teachers and friends of Ludlow Street Baptist Sunday school, West End, led by R. H. Parsons, stormed the home of Rev. W. A. Robbins last evening to do honor to his daughter, Miss Marjorie, and son, Carl. Marjorie will leave today for Washington, D. C., where she will specialize at the great Howard University, and Carl will leave next week for the same institution. The affair was strictly informal and was a genuine surprise to these popular young folks, who have won hosts of friends during their two years' residence here. After several games had been played, the following programme was greatly enjoyed: Vocal solo, Miss H. Sylvia Mills; readings, Edwin B. Rupert, solo, Miss Marjorie Robbins; quartette, Misses Louise and Sadie Burke, Dorothy Rupert and Mae Robbins; solo, Ralph J. Rupert; readings, Miss Marjorie Robbins.

R. Hunter Parsons, in a happy speech, referred to the high esteem in which the two talented young people were held, and to the great help they had been in the church and community. He was sure he voiced the sentiments of all that they would be successful in their larger sphere of activity and in the name of those present he asked them to accept beautiful silk umbrellas as a slight token of regard, expressing the wish that the sun would shine so much upon them that they would not need the umbrellas. After the singing of "It Ain't Goin' to Rain No More," sincere thanks were expressed by the recipients. Rev. W. A. Robbins and Mrs. Robbins expressed their appreciation of the honor done their children.

Dainty refreshments were served by an efficient committee composed of Mrs. Geo. Gibson, Mrs. Geo. Clarke, Mrs. R. C. Mackenzie, Mrs. Geo. Jones and Mrs. F. Roxborough.

The happy occasion closed a little after midnight with the singing of "When You Come Home," "God Be With You" and "Sweet Bye-Bye."

Miss Marjorie and Carl Robbins have been associated with Wessons, Ltd., and Miss Robbins with W. F. Smith, manufacturing agents, and both are very highly spoken of by their employers.

FREE BERTHS FOR GRAIN CARRIERS

Comm'r Bullock Discusses Plan for Those Taking Full Cargoes.

That a plan he had in mind of free berths for vessels taking full cargoes of grain vessels being an increase in grain shipments sought by the port and at the same time not impair the earnings of the port, was said this morning by Commissioner Bullock.

He declared that a 4,000 ton vessel taking a full cargo of grain into the latter amount made up of $1,100 on the inward cargo, $1,000 on the outward cargo and $240 wharfage.

He discussed the matter with one shipping man who agreed with his point of view that vessels carrying general cargo and grain did not need any exceptions but that it would be wise to make the port free for ships carrying full cargoes as this would be bringing new business to the port.

Gerald Meilke, amateur golf champion of the maritime provinces, and his brother, Frank, last year's champion, and runner-up this year, are expected to be members of the group from the Brightwood Club, Halifax, that will play representatives of the Riverside Golf Club at the Riverside course tomorrow.

The series between these two clubs have been conducted now for several years, and are held alternate years at Riverside and Halifax. There is quite a healthy rivalry and some keen golf is expected. The development among the players at Riverside this summer has been outstanding, and the players are confident they can put up a stiff argument. Thirteen players will make the trip from Halifax.

Mr. Lindsey said that this is the first time that the C. N. R. has had an exhibit in Fredericton and that the exhibit, he said, was much like that at the St. John exhibition but on a slightly smaller scale.

2 CRIMINAL CASES IN CARLETON COURT

Case Against Hartland Boys Dropped—Civil Case Concerns St. John Man.

(Special to The Times-Star.) Woodstock, Sept. 18.—The September term of the Carleton County Court opened on Tuesday with Judge Carleton presiding. Wallace Gibson was selected as foreman of the grand jury. There were two cases on the criminal docket, the King vs. James Canavan and Ella Hartsgrove, and the case of three young boys of Hartland charged with breaking and entering the store of Keith and Plummer Ltd. and stealing a quantity of candy. True bills were found in each case.

C. J. Jones clerk of the court prosecuted. In the first case, which involved a divorce in Maine, Judge Carleton directed a verdict of not guilty. F. C. Squires appeared for the defence. In the case against the Hartland boys, Mr. Jones entered a nolle prosequi.

In the civil jury case of Clarence T. Black vs. J. P. McKay, Jones and Jones appeared for the plaintiff and E. P. Raymond K. C. of St. John for the defendant. A settlement was reached.

There were five non-jury cases brought on by Messrs. J. West and E. P. Raymond K. C. of St. John for the plaintiffs. The cases are not defended and judgment was entered in each case for the amount of the claim.

LOOK FOR A GOOD BIG GAME SEASON

Huntsmen Eager for October 1 to Go After the Moose.

In less than two weeks the monarch of the New Brunswick forests, the bull moose, will find his habitat infested by sharp-eyed and eager hunters who will be vying for the honor of bringing down the largest and the one with the greatest spread of antlers. The season for hunting moose will open on October 1 and judging from the number of enthusiasts who have already purchased rifles, cartridges, ready-made traps and snares, they will anticipate extra vigilance on the part of the "king" if he wishes to keep his antlers in the hands of the hunters.

The lure of the woods has already been felt by hundreds in this city who are sensible way to spend a vacation, will content that at the first of the season it is almost impossible to track a moose and equally hard to hit one unless one is lucky and when one comes across one somewhere in the open. Another argument they advance is that it is hard to keep the meat in the early season.

Judging from the number of enquiries received many from the United States are coming to the coast to see the status of Mrs. Susan Monroe Meilke, who is 15 years of age, was married in Plaisance, N. B., on Sept. 9. According to the school attendance officer, George A. Pickard, she is 15 years of age, though she claimed she was 17 years when she received her marriage license a few days ago.

Maritime Industry Much to Fore Here

J. A. Marven, Ltd., Make Impressive "White Lily" Week Display.

Another maritime industry that is fast consolidating its position in the front rank of Canadian products is J. A. Marven, Limited, biscuit manufacturers with headquarters in Moncton, N. B., who are holding a "White Lily" week here now in order to demonstrate to the people of St. John the excellent quality of this product. The firm started several years ago by J. A. Marven in Moncton and, although young, its growth has been most satisfactory, until today it has branches in St. John, Halifax, Montreal, Quebec, British West Indies and Bermuda. A rather interesting fact also is that
