The case against George V. Parker was concluded this morning with argument of counsel and the charge of the judge. The jury will deal with it this afternoon. W. M. Ryan appeared for the crown and D. Mullin, K.C., for the defence.

INFORMATION WANTED F. B. Haskell, attorney of Portland, Maine, has written the common clerk of the city, asking for information regard-ing relatives of Mary Burns, who is now in Portland. Miss Burns said that she in Portland. Miss Burns said that she did not know who her parents were as she was adopted by people in Portland when a small child. She remembered having a brother John and another Charles and she thinks, one sister whose name she did not know. Any information available will be forwarded by the clerk of the city.

hear the wage disputes between the miners and operators of the British Empire Steel Corporation, representatives of the opposing, parties have been brought together again with a view to settling their differences. They have announced, however, that they were unable to reach an agreement.

The conciliation board is expected to give a finding at the end of this week or the first of next.

During the sittings of the board the miners are understood to have made offers to accept "without prejudice" a seven per cent reduction in contract rates, datal rates to remain unchanged.

They later modified this it is said, to read ten per cent off contract rates and five per cent off datal. A third offer by the miners was that they be given a twenty-five per cent increase over the wage rates of 1905, to represent an improved standard of living, plus the difference in the cost of living between 1905 and 1921.

RACE MEET SPREAD NAME OF ST. JOHN;

NAME OF ST. JOHN;
AN INSTANCE

If the recent national speed skating championships at Lily Lake did nothing else, they at least carried a breath of the home air into districts where it is very rare for a press despatch from St. John to reach and it is certain that many a former St. John man read with pride of the unqualified success of the big meet.

Away out in the middle western states is a small town, the name of which is hardly known to more than a dozen people in the city, but there a St. John man has made his new home. He was able to point with pride to a paragraph published in the local paper there, in which it was announced that 20,000 people turned out to witness the Canadian championships here. He sent a clipping of the story to friends here.

So the prediction that the fame of St. John would be spread broadcast over the United States and Canada, which was made by a West St. John man after the event, looks as if it might to a great extent come true.

It that this was used in seven trucks and cars. The amount charged to sewerage for gasdline was $720.

Re $4,000 expended for parts, Mr. Sewell said that some of the cars were overhauled twice.

With reference to the coal bill, Mr. Sewell said it took thirty-five tons of hard coal to heat the water and sewerage building. Soft coal was used for boil-ers, etc.

Mr. Bullock asked if the cost of supplies for sewerage maintenance should not be cut down by the emergency work now being done.

JUDGMENT RESERVED.

In Chancery this morning argument of counsel was heard in the matter of the Canadian Credit Men's Trust Association vs. the executors of the estate of the Canadian Credit Men's Trust Association vs. the executors of the plaintiff, and Messrs. In the court.

Joseph Axtell was committed for trial on a charge of stealing a gold watch, valued at $35, from James Woods' shop on Carmarthen street, and of having escaped from the Boys' Industrial Home. He formerly pleaded guilty to the theft, but not guilty to the escape.

A. J. Parker, superintendent of the Boys' Industrial Home, said the accused had been admitted to the home on August 15, 1921, on a commitment for incorrigibility in the Municipal Home. He said he escaped three times, on August 29, September 22 and October 26. Since this last time he had not seen Axtell until this morning.
