> London, Oct. 25-Terence MacSwiney, Lord Mayor of Cork, died in Brixton prison, this city, at twenty minutes to six o'clock this morning. His death followed a hunger strike of more than seventy-five days, eclipsing any in the annals

MacSwiney, who has been unconscious for several days, did not recover his faculties before he died. Father Dominic, his private chaplain, and his brother, Georgia has sent an ultimatum to the John MacSwiney, were with him when the end came. Father Dominic was at the prison all night and did not leave until several hours after MacSwiney breath-

Vienna, Oct. 25.—A report received here from Lemberg, Galicia, says that the Bolsheviki have concluded an armistice with General Petlura, a leader of the Ukrainian forces.

London, Oct. 25.—The Izvestia of Mescay comments incuringly on a warm.

After the reisoner's death his beather long and the chaplain, who had been waiting down stairs in the prison, were told by prison officials at half past four o'clock that they should go to the mayor's bedside, as they thought death was approaching. The brother asked for the privilege of communicating with other relatives who were not present, but the officials, he alleges, refused him the use of a telephone.

George's Cathedral, in London, as soon as the inquest was ended. The body will lie in state there until it is taken, probably on board a special train, to Dublin, where it is planned to place the body for a day or two in the Mansion House. MacSwinery's grave will be alongside that of his official predecessor, Lord Mayor Thomas MacCurtain, who was shot in his home in Cork on March 20. MacSwiney will be fourth to buried in this plot, the others being MacCurtain, McQuirke, who was taken out of bed in his Galway home and shot, and McNesly, who participated in the Easter rising in Dublin in 1916.

A friend of the MacSwiney family, who accompanied Mrs. MacSwiney will be the status of these hunger strikers to the congregation of the holy office.
