THE WOMAN WHO KNOWS

MADAME ELLIS

"CIRCUS! OH JOY!"

John Robinson, With His Immense Show, Will Entertain Thousands of Residents.

With two trains of extra length, 1,472 employees, 325 of the world's famous acrobats, 500 horses, 100 cute little high stepping girls, tents that comfortably seat 10,000 people and a mile long parade, the John Robinson circus will visit St. John, Monday, July 7. The show is about the oldest in the United States, having been organized in Utica, New York, in the spring of 1824. It has exhibited continuously since that time and has grown from a show hauled by five wagons to a monster aggregation second to none. The third generation of Robinsons is now in charge and next season, John Robinson the Fourth will take active charge. This young man, twenty-five years old, has just returned from France and the battlefields.

The menagerie with the John Robinson circus has been greatly augmented during the winter. There are forty cages of rare wild animals including "Congo," the only baby Hippopotamus in captivity. Ten of the largest and best trained elephants in the country are also John Robinson's. The performance in the three rings, on the two stages, in the aerial enclaves and around the wide hippodrome racing track is said to be the best the John Robinson folks have ever presented to a discriminating public.

A SOCIETY ROMANCE

It is not often that society is caught napping when the wedding takes place of one of the most aristocratic of peers to one of the most famous and exclusive of New York's select "Four Hundred." Yet this was the case on Saturday, May 31, when Lord Ribblesdale was secretly married at a registry office in London to Mrs. John Jacob Astor, at one time a leader of American society. The announcement of the nuptial surprise was made by the Daily Express.

It is safe to say that no wedding of recent times has created such a stir in fashionable circles.

Lord Ribblesdale, who is in his 63th year, is some twenty years older than his bride. He has no heir, both his sons having died fighting—the elder in the Somaliland campaign in 1904, and the younger, the Hon. Charles Lister, who became a Socialist, in the Dardanelles during the great war.

He is easily the most picturesque peer in Debrett. King Edward used to call PEACE after war. Rest after labor. Know what they mean to a soldier who has come home; read Lieut. Coningsby Dawson's great story. Read the other narratives of men and women who have endured and conquered in both war and peace. Read the sparkling fiction, the exclusive fashions, the great household departments. Then you will know why women everywhere, in a rising tide that is the wonder of the publishing world, are sweeping from the news-stands each big issue of a publication that is more helpful than ever. He is a tall, slim man with an early Victorian manner, somewhat of a diplomat in appearance and speaks French and Spanish fluently. His first wife was a sister of Lord Glenconner and he has three daughters living.

His third daughter last year married Captain Arthur Capel, brother of the present Lady Michelham, who is one of the principals in the romantic lawsuit, which, when heard, will involve millions. His eldest daughter married Sir Matthew Wilson and his second daughter is the wife of Lord Lovat.

ROBERTSON'S

On Johnny's first day at school he was given a registration card on which his mother was to write his birth record. The following day he arrived late and without the registration slip.

"Johnny," said the teacher, "you must bring an excuse for being late, and don't forget the slip about when you were born."

All out of breath next day Johnny rushed in, holding a note from his mother.

"Teacher," he gasped, "I brought the one about being late, but I forgot my excuse about being born."
