A horse owned by John Glynn, and driven by Frank Crawford, bolted suddenly last evening in the street and ran at high speed into Market Square, while many persons watched, expecting to see Crawford dashed out to death or serious injury on the roadway. The animal stumbled, however, and fell, and was later led gently to the stable.

Crawford had been driving the horse at the request of two ladies with whom the animal had previously become unmanageable in Main street.

Try the Union Wet Wash. Phone 1862 for quick delivery.

Uneda Rest, the summer home of Miss Nellie A. V. Graham, at Ketepec, was the scene of a very pleasant event on Saturday afternoon, when friends of Miss Mildred Munro made her the recipient of a lovely shower in honor of her approaching marriage.

For Friday and Saturday are offered ladies' suits at $8.98, worth $15; sport coats from $5.98 to $12.00; rain coats from $8.98 up.

A still alarm for a fire in the Zion church parsonage was rung in last evening while the church adjoining was in session. It was only a chimney fire and was extinguished by the use of salt.

STEAMER ELAINE

The steamer "Elaine" leaves Indian town every Wednesday and Saturday morning at eight o'clock for Chipman and intermediate points, leaving for St. John at six a. m. for St. John on Mondays and Thursdays. Captain R. H. Weston, manager.

Buried Yesterday

The funeral of John Raymond Kelly took place yesterday from his home, Gilbert's Lane, to the cathedral, where service was conducted by Rev. Father Duke, and thence to the new Catholic cemetery.

The funeral of Helen Jenkins took place yesterday afternoon from her parents' home, Millidgeville avenue, to St. Peter's church and thence to the New Catholic cemetery.

Edward Furlong, aged thirteen years, was arrested on Saturday by Detective Lucas on a charge of stealing a horse and wagon owned by Michael Owens. Complaints at police headquarters recently of boys stealing wagons and riding about the city for a few hours in them have been quite frequent.

Patrick O'Neill, while serving a two months' sentence in the county jail on a charge of drunkenness, attempted to commit suicide yesterday morning by slashing his throat with a razor.

Three other prisoners in his cell rushed forward and took the razor from him, but not before he had inflicted a severe gash on his throat. Dr. F. H. Dunlop attended him, and he was taken to the hospital.
