MAX NORDAU STARTS HEATED DISCUSSION IN ZIONIST CONGRESS

Vienna, Sept. 4.—The Zionist congress today elected as president David Wolffsohn of London. The sitting was mainly occupied with a discussion of the report of the executive. A heated debate arose over a telegram from Max Nordau blaming the administration for forsaking the ideas of Herzl, the founder of the Zionist movement.

Wall Street Notes
New York, Sept. 4.—Bank of England rate unchanged.

American stocks in London irregular, active stocks mostly higher; consols 78 1/2.

Mexican situation unchanged, though the New York Herald has a heading that Huerta accepts Wilson's proposals. Senate talks on the currency legislation.

Regular 75 cent dividend on Tenn. Copper.

Bank clearings show a slowing down of business.

The syndicate in Southern Pacific stock will get about 20 per cent of their allotment, a great many odd lots will be distributed around September 15. What effect it will have on the price of the stock is problematical.

The general crop news was bad yesterday and in some cases took on a serious tone, but think the decline yesterday was due more to the absence of buying orders than any particular pressure to sell.

Time money showed more firmness yesterday.
