

RECENT WEDDINGS

Goodman-Nichols.
St. John's church, West End, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon, when Edith Jeanette Nichols, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Nichols, of the west side, was united in marriage to Clifford Ellsworth Goodman, formerly of Toronto, but now of St. John. Rev. Craig Nichols, of Westfield, uncle of the bride, officiated and was assisted by Rev. J. H. A. Holmes, rector of the church. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in brown Canton crepe with orange trimmings. Her bouquet was of Ophelia roses. Miss Marion Nichols, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a dress of pink organdy with hat to match. The groom is the senior member of the firm of Goodman & Burpee of this city, and the bride was formerly employed on the local staff of the Dominion income tax office. They received many handsome presents, including a beautiful mahogany electric lamp from the staff of the Dominion income tax office and a silver casket from St. John's choir. Mr. and Mrs. Goodman left for Toronto, where they will spend their honeymoon, and the good wishes of a host of friends have been extended to them. They will return to St. John to make their home.

Nelson-Goulding.
In Carmarthen street Methodist church yesterday afternoon the marriage was solemnized of Miss Ann May Goulding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Goulding, 180 Broad street, to John Bertram Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson, Campbellton. Rev. E. E. Styles officiated. The bride wore a navy blue suit and a black hat with ermine trimmings and a ermine tie, the gift of the groom, and she carried a large bouquet of white roses. Following the ceremony the bridal party returned to the home of the parents, where a wedding supper was served, followed by a reception. The bride has received many attractive gifts from her large circle of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson will make their home at 130 Broad street. The bride formerly resided in Newfoundland.

RECENT DEATHS

Michael J. Doherty.
The death of Michael J. Doherty occurred last night at his home, 128 Dorchester street. He is survived by two daughters, the Misses Doherty, at home; a grand niece, Miss Bernice Borden, and a nephew, John O'Neill of St. John. Mr. Doherty was born in Dundalk, Ireland, in 1877, and came to this country in 1897. He had lived during the reigns of five British sovereigns.

Mrs. Mary J. Stephens.
Mrs. Mary J. Stephens, 42 St. John street, west end, died suddenly last evening at her home, following an attack of heart disease while she was on a shopping trip. Dr. B. F. Johnson attended her and gave restoratives, but she passed away in spite of all aid. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. E. J. Knox, with whom she lived, and one son, John, of Prospect Point, formerly of the staff of the local Post Office.

Mrs. John Retallick.
The death of Mrs. John Retallick occurred yesterday at her home, 262 Charlotte street, West St. John. Mrs.

Retallick had for many years, been president of the W. C. T. U. of West St. John and her death will be keenly regretted by a wide circle of friends. She was born in West St. John and was a member of the Methodist church. She is survived by her husband, two daughters, Mrs. J. L. Robertson, of St. John, and Miss Nan Retallick, at home, and one brother, W. J. Cunningham, of the St. John-Charleton ferry service. The funeral is arranged for tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from her late residence.

Miss Mary Campbell of Middle Sackville, died at her home on Sunday following a prolonged illness. She leaves one sister, Miss Alton Campbell and two brothers, Clinton C. and George R., all of Middle Sackville. She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell who were well and favorably known throughout Westmoreland County. Her brother William Campbell died two years ago. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon.
