SPEAKS OF LEAGUE

Address of Interest by P. J. Hughes to Holy Name Society

A comprehensive and illuminating address on the League of Nations was delivered last evening before the Holy Name Society of Holy Trinity church by Peter J. Hughes, K. C., of Fredericton. The lecture was heard with appreciation by a large audience. Judge H. O. McInerney, K. C., presided and tendered a hearty vote of thanks to the speaker on behalf of the society. The resolution of thanks was moved by Joseph Harrington and seconded by Herbert McManus.

Mr. Hughes gave an outline of the history of the League and told of what it had accomplished. Its usefulness had not been confined to the preventing of wars, which was its chief objective, but had extended to many world welfare endeavors, he said.
