

APPENDIX I.

In the course of the last few years, the Government of Canada has been engaged in a series of measures which have had a profound effect upon the minds of the people. It is the duty of every citizen to be fully informed of the reasons for these measures, and to express his views upon them. It is the duty of the Government to listen to these views, and to act upon them in a wise and judicious manner.

The Government has been successful in many of its measures, and the people have benefited in many ways. It is the duty of the Government to continue to act in the best interests of the people, and to be guided by the principles of justice and equity.
