Celebration.

The election of Mr. Snowball was celebrated yesterday by the streets being deorated with flags and the burning of bon fires in the evening.

A False Prophet.

The St. John Sun, whose proprietors arefully concealed their identity so that they might personally escape the odium which the vulgarity and falsehood of its columns could not but bring upon them said in its issue of Saturday last: -"Nevertheless, Mr. Mitchell will beat Mr. Snowball in every parish except Chat-ham, and will defeat him by 500 votes."

FINGERS TAKEN OFF. -One day in the early part of last week a man named Barry had the top of two of his fingers taken off between two deals at the mill of Guy Beyan & Co., at Black Brook.

JAW BROKEN. - On Saturday night at 9.30 as Mrs. Dulhanty wife of Patrick Dulhanty, living in Queen Street while crossing Water Street, was run over by a horse driven by two boys, and carried in sensible to her house. She was attended that her lower jaw was broken at its angle on the right side, but she is now doing Coroner J. S. Benson held an inquest on the body of a young man named Thomas Bradly, seaman of the barquentine Globe.

The evidence shewed that between 10 and 11 on Monday night the watchman of the barque St. Helena which lay alongside the Globe, heard a splash as of a man falled at Muirhead's mill wharf. He at once gave the alarm, and both crews turned out to search, but saw nothing. On inquiry it was found that, Bradly was the only missing man from either crew, and it of the had gone ashore between the beautiful and the same of the sa out to search, but saw nothing. On intween 9 and 10 that evening. After breakfast on Tuesday morning, three of the crew of the Globe commenced grappling opposite the wharf and after working half an hour found the body. A

Respectability!

If the Advance wants Mr. Mitchell to be successful, let him keep on abusing Mr. R. P. Whitney, Robert R. Call and M. Adams. They at least are respectable citizens. Is the editor of the Advance one? The Advocate, which forged a clergyman's name last week to a document intended to whitewash its "junior forman's" character ought not to say too much about "respectability." We presume the trio mentiored by it in the above are satisfied that dignity is conferred upon them by their being named in these columns.

"The meanest thing that Mr. Snowball has done yet was to attack our French population."

The above is from the Advocate, and Brockville, Brant S., Brockville, Bruce, N. Bruce S., was intended to further a most disreputa- | Cardwell, ble printed production (said to have Carleton, come from the Advocate press) which was circulated on Saturday last in Alnwick. Dundas, All honor to that intelligent French parish whose sons repudiated the slander by giving Mr. Snowball a majority of one hundred Elgin, E. and fifty-eight! Ought a paper which is, evidently, kept in existence for the pur-pose to which the Advocate is devoted to Grey, N. Haldimand,

The Advocate extra said last week:—
"Some time since, the more judicious of Mr. Snowball's friends pointed out to him the great injury that was being done to his cause by the weak and foolish course he allowed his organ to pursue. He was advised to suppress its "manager" until after the election, if he expected to succeed. But, being puffed up with his imaginary importance, he rejected the advice, and allowed the Manager to run the paper. The consequence has been what Snowball's more judicious friends foresaw. The canvass of slander and defamation which has disgraced journalism, has also disgusted the great body of its readers, and has brought to Mr. Mitchell's support a great many voters who before were lukwarm and uninterested."

The above was aimed at the ADVANCE.

The above was aimed at the ADVANCE. Ontario, S. In the light of Tuesday's experience, such silly vaporings ought to be discontinued. Oxford, S. The readers of the Advocate have been Peel, Perth, N. nauseated with them for four years.

The Electors' opinion of Mr. Adams | Simcoe E. was expressed on Tuesday last. At Lower Alnwick, where Hon. Surveyor-Genera Adams was assisted by Hon. Robert Victoria, S. Young, President of the Executive Coun. Waterloo, N. cil of New Brunswick, in the work of "defeating Snowball" they came out in a minority just vinety-nine votes, and in that whole Parish, where the President of the Wettworth, N. Bain. Council and Mr. Adams boasted of their great influence they were defeated by one hundred and fifty-eight out of a total vote of three hundred and seventy-three. Algoma, not in yet
