roic measures to bring in the five insurgents who are still out.

Lillian is a bright little girl and a general favorite with teachers and pupils alike. With the pupils her influence has always been great and Mr. Dewey, principal of school No. 126, the Kid McCoy who was put to considers it a great stroke of ciplomacy that he enlisted Lillian on his the pugilist who is matched to strikers to resume their duties in school No. 82, to which they had been transferred. Lillian had faith in herself and went among the boys in a quiet, business-like way. She addressed the thirty-five insurgents in a body in a lot not far from the school, and at the end marched at the head of thirty of them to Mr. Dewey. They were then sent to No. 82.

Activitient Superintendent Walsh de-

Assistant Superintendent Walsh decared last night that the plan of trans-ferring the pupils had been attended with great success. It has, he said, been the means of putting large numbers of pupils on full time. He said was cold, but some good time was that the plan will now be extended to the Slope section, where it will affect schools Nos. 77, 9, 11 and 4. It is expected that there will be opposition to this plan an g parents, but Mr. Walsh does not look for any such outbreaks as marked the introduction of the system in South Brooklyn.
