CHRISTMAS TRADE THE BIGGEST EVER.

Best Season St. John Merchants Ever Had.

In Every Line Purchases Were More Numerous and More Expensive—Splendid Weather Largely the Cause.

The Christmas trade during the last three weeks has probably been the greatest in the history of the city. This result is probably due to three causes, the prosperity of the city, the extraordinary favorable weather and the increased observation of the holiday. Saturday was the climax, and it is probable that St. John stores were never more crowded, and in the crowds that were very few sight seen but nearly all were purchasers.

The general expression of opinion was that better lines of goods were purchased this year than in former seasons. The regular merchants have gradually dropped the small trade, the five and ten cent articles, and this has fallen a good deal to the department stores.

Another tendency which was noticed this year, and which was also seen last year, was the buying of gifts in larger quantities of a practical and useful nature instead of goods more or less ornamental. There was a time when the Christmas trade was almost altogether in the hands of the jeweller and similar trades, but now the dry goods and boot and shoe merchants also have more than they can look after.

The clothing stores report large sales, notwithstanding the clearance sales earlier in the month. A well known boot and shoe firm report that in their line the business was the biggest ever. Their rush they say generally commences with the snow, and this year the snow came early and they have had a good steady trade ever since.

A well known stationery merchant said this morning that his trade up to Saturday was as large as the whole month of December last year. A leading confectionery dealer said the trade this year was immense, the number of fancy boxes of candy sold being particularly large. The confectionists also report that they had a lively business.

A prominent King street tobacconist said that in the 43 years which his firm had been in business the trade this year was the largest. The business on Saturday was the largest they have ever handled, and each day this year was greater than the corresponding day in former years.

POVERTY IN LONDON GREATLY INCREASING.

NEW YORK, Dec. 25.—A cable despatch to the Times from London, says: Official figures relating to the poor in London show that the numbers in receipt of pauper relief in nearly every month of the year now ending have been greater than in any of the previous forty years comprised in the returns, with the exception of the period from 1867 to 1871.

The ratio of paupers per 1,000 of population has been higher in most of the months of this year than in any previous year since 1874.

Not only has there been a remarkable increase in outward relief, but the rise in the numbers entering workhouses has continued. In no year of the history of the city has the population in the work houses been greater for December.

PRECIOUS RING STOLEN FROM EVA BOOTH.

NEW YORK, Dec. 25.—It was learned yesterday that Commander Eva Booth, of the Salvation Army, had her diamond ring stolen from her wrist during the crush at a subway station.

While there were only several dollars in the bag her greatest loss was the wedding ring which her father gave to her mother many years ago and which at her mother's death was handed down to her sister, Mrs. Booth Tucker, who was killed about two years ago in a railroad wreck.

"The ring," said Miss Booth, "was found on my sister's finger after her death, and it had been given to me. I have prized it greatly on account of its sad, sweet associations."

WHOLE TOWN BURNED; HOMELESS IN SNOW STORM

SUMPTER, Ore., Dec. 25.—Fire last night destroyed a large part of the little town of Tipton, thirty-one miles south of Sumpter. A high wind accompanied by heavy snowfall is raging and nearly all the people of Tipton are homeless. There was little or no insurance, no fire department and little water. The loss is not known here.

The I. C. R. elevator is at work today. The Dunmore Head is taking a large amount of wheat.

PREVENTS MURDER BY WILL POWER.

Woman Fixed Her Eye on Drink-Crazed Man and Held Him Powerless For Ten Hours.

BERKELEY, Cal., Dec. 25.—The strain of protecting an aged invalid woman from the wrath of an insane son, and of exerting her will power to subdue the murderous man has left Mrs. Mary Brautlecht in such a condition that today, after twenty-four hours of extraordinary mental excitement, she declared that out of it all she feared a deranged mind.

Mrs. Brautlecht, a matron with a family of little ones, whose husband is a house painter, and of whom nothing but commonplace might be expected, stood guard for ten hours over Mrs. Mary Avery, forcing the woman's son to cover in a rear room, where he could not wreak his murderous spite against his mother. With her eye she subdued. He could not choose but to do her bidding.

Wm. Avery, the son, is a powerful man. Last night he was a drink-crazed man, intent upon murder. Yet under the influence of a quiet little woman (his neighbor) he became subdued, sat under her spell throughout all the long hours after midnight until dawn and obeyed her every order without a word of resentment.

"The man was subject to my will, apparently," said Mrs. Brautlecht, at her home, "and while I know he hated me, still he feared me, and I had but to speak and lay my hand upon his arm and he became quiet as a lamb."

Her experience in this dealing with a maniac, holding him in leash with no other weapon than a calm eye and a will of mysterious force, while revealing Mrs. Brautlecht as an extraordinary person, has brought about the condition in which she fears for her own reason.

GREAT BATTLE BETWEEN PRINTERS AND EMPLOYERS

On January First the Struggle for the Eight Hour Day and the Closed Shop Will Begin.

NEW YORK, Dec. 25.—Final preparations will be made this week by the Typographical and Typographical Union No. 6 for the fight over the eight hour day and the closed shop which is expected to begin on January 1.

A representative of the union said yesterday: "The only demand we made is the 8 hour working day, the nine hour rule having prevailed up to the present."

The employers have refused the eight hour day and will try to introduce the open shop. The fight will be a bitter one. We have more than $100,000 available now and can raise $500,000 if necessary."

The periodical publishers' association has decided to stand by the Typographical Union, and members of this association which have their own printing plants will refuse the demands.

LETTER CARRIERS MAKE A JUST COMPLAINT.

The city letter carriers are putting up a good strong kick against the city fathers for forcing them to work at Christmas times. They claim that in all business houses where the Christmas trade is much larger than the ordinary extra help is employed, but seemingly the postal authorities think that a staff of letter carriers is capable of conducting the Christmas rush. This is an impossibility, and causes the greatest confusion and unpleasantness.

This year the business at the local post office has been much greater than on any previous Christmas season, and the carriers have been practically worked to death. Yesterday some of the men who went out on the early delivery did not complete their route till 2 p. m.

ROD AND SLAUGHTER IN THE STREETS OF MOSCOW.

LONDON, Dec. 25.—The correspondent of the Daily Telegraph at St. Petersburg in a despatch dated at 6.45 p. m., Dec. 25, says: "At an early hour this morning the casualties at Moscow were estimated at 5,000 killed and 14,000 wounded, with the fighting still proceeding."

"The inhabitants of Moscow have been forbidden to leave their dwellings under penalty of death. It is impossible to move about the city. The consequence of the frequency of stray bullets. Many innocent persons have been accidentally killed."

"A scarcity of provisions is threatened. The same correspondent, telegraphing at 10.38 p. m., says: "Your Moscow correspondent's telegram have not been accepted because all private messages were refused this afternoon."

STREET CAR HELD UP IN CHICAGO.

Six Armed Men Invaded Crowd—Trolley Car -

And Were Robbing the Passengers When Police Appeared and Arrested Them After a Battle

CHICAGO, Dec. 25.—On a crowded Ashland Avenue electric car at 36th street last night six armed men fired a score of shots through the windows and roof and were engaged in robbing the passengers, including several women and children, when the trolley pole was removed from the wire by the conductor and the bandits were left struggling in the darkness.

While the male passengers and the car crew were battling with the thieves a wagon load of policemen arrived and five of the robbers were captured. Two men boarded the front platform of the car at 36th street, and holding revolvers at the head of Motorman Jas. Callahan, forced him to stop the car.

Four accomplices then got on the rear platform, and while one of them covered James Link, the conductor, with his weapon, three entered the car.

"Everybody hold up your hands. We want your money and your watch," said the leader of the band. Evidently hoping to frighten their intended victims before robbing the whole sale robbery, the trio first repeatedly through the windows and the roof.

Several women fainted and children cried in terror. When the uproar and confusion were at their height, the conductor, striking away the arm of the man who threatened his life, pulled the trolley pole, and the interior of the car instantly was plunged in darkness.

Meanwhile Callahan, the motorman, in the battle with the four robbers, knocked one off the car with the controller handle. His companion, went into the car to the aid of the three who were engaged in a hand-to-hand fight.

A passenger who accompanied the car informed the police, who came in a patrol wagon, entered the car and drove the robbers from it at the point of their revolvers. The bandits exchanged shots with the policemen, but were overpowered.

Big Machine With Four Men and Two Women Crushed Man to Death and Dashed Away Uncaring.

NEW YORK, Dec. 25.—The Herald today says: Crushing a man into a dying condition an automobile party of six, of whom two were women, gave no further heed to their victim and left him to his fate in the dark roadway of Jerome Avenue last night flying on their mad pace unchecked to the city and escaping for the time at least of capture and responsibility for the taking of a human life.

No clue to the identity of the machine or its occupants was gathered except the trail of broken glass which littered the roadway for many yards beyond the scene of the accident.

Nicholas Radowitch the injured man was taken to Fort Greene hospital. His legs and ribs were broken, his skull probably fractured and he gave evidence of internal injuries which promised to soon prove fatal.

Police and detectives from the Bronx Park station went to the scene and found nothing but the broken glass and the car. The driver, Robert Smith, a policeman, was fatally shot and S. Hull, chief of police, was stabbed early today. The fight occurred on East Branch street near the Catholic cemetery about three o'clock. Italians were excited by Christmas good cheer were shooting at each other when the police appeared and the Italians turned their weapons against them. Chief Hull is expected to recover.

ROTOR CAPTAIN BROKE WRIST

The schooner Vera B. Roberts is in port and her master Capt. Roberts is disabled with a broken wrist. The Roberts was bound for Sealeville with a cargo of moulding and sand for Messrs. Rhodes, Currie and Co., from an American port and put in here last night as the captain wanted information as to his chances of reaching Sealeville, thinking the river might be frozen up.

This morning when he came on deck he slipped on the icy deck and fell injuring himself as above stated. The prospects are that the Roberts will discharge here.

WALL STREET PRIZE FIGHT MAY END SERIOUSLY.

200 Excited Brokers on Christmas Day Watched 2 Pugilists, One a Canadian, Punch Each Other Brutally

NEW YORK, Dec. 25.—Wall street bankers and brokers in the number of 200 arranged as part of their Christmas day programme a prize fight which resulted yesterday afternoon in the injury of one combatant and the disfigurement of the other, the World says today.

Spectators paid $5 each for admission to the arena, which was in a building within a few blocks of where Congressman "Big Tim" Sullivan presided as patron of hundreds of poorer men who would otherwise had gone hungry on Christmas. The Wall street crowd lost in bets. "Young Kilrain," of Canada, and "Kid" Callaghan, of the Bronx, were engaged for the contest. Besides a purse of $200 to spur them on to the fray, feeling on account of the result of a previous contest secured to the Wall street crowd a lively contest.

Betting became brisk, and the weight of money displayed Callaghan from favorite to an even money choice. Callaghan was the aggressor at first. He cut Callaghan's face, broke his nose, and was striving for a knock-out when Callaghan came back with a rush which sent Kilrain to his corner in a groggy condition when the bell rang. In the second round Callaghan was sent to the mat for a count of seven, and just managed to last the round. The boys fought close to the ropes in the third, and several spectators flicked away crimson stains which appeared on the shirt fronts.

Beginning with the fourth round Callaghan became the aggressor. Kilrain's nose was broken in the fifth round and he was weakening fast. At the close of the fifth round of the fight a foul was claimed, and a free fight among the excited brokers seemed imminent.

The finish came in the eleventh round, when Callaghan put his left to the body and right to the jaw, and Kilrain fell to the ropes. Spectators pushed him back into the ring, but he was unconscious. He was not revived until after 15 minutes of hard work. A physician in the crowd advised his immediate removal to the hospital, but he was hurried away in a carriage by his friends.
