LOCAL NEWS.

The Milkmen's Association will meet at eleven o'clock tomorrow forenoon at Bowman's Hall, on Brussels street.

A concert will be held in Brussels St. Baptist Church about November 20th. Miss Marjorie Davis, reader, of Boston, will assist, as will a number of the leading vocalists of the city.

There will be a special and important meeting of the St. John W. C. T. U. tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock at their rooms on Germain street.

Further testing of No. 3 high service main will not be taken up until Wednesday next. The recent break has been repaired.

E. McDonald, a former St. John boy, who lived in Carleton, is visiting relatives in the city. Mr. McDonald is with the Standard Oil people, commencing with them in one of the middle states cities. He is now located farther west.

While Samuel Francis was driving an express wagon down Main street this morning the horse became frightened and ran away. Francis was thrown out and badly shaken up. The horse after going a short distance slipped on the wooden blocks and fell, but was not injured.

Rev. Gordon Pringle, of Kinrossville, has written the secretary of the Presbytery declining to have his name placed before the Presbytery as a candidate for the pastorate of the village church, to which he had received an invitation.

Rev. J. M. Heaney, B. A., pastor of the Silver Falls Methodist Church, has notified the trustees of the Carleton Methodist Church of his acceptance of their call to succeed Rev. H. D. Marr in June next, subject to approval by the conference.

A cow owned by Edward Rieler of Port Hope was chased today by a number of dogs and nearly driven over the high bank of the hill fronting on Main street. Officer Corbett who was around at the time went to the rescue and drove away the dogs, and led the cow from her perilous position.

A marriage which numerous Saint John people will be interested in hearing about took place in Boston on the 24th, in which Miss Pearl B. McCloskey, daughter of C. McCloskey, Millville, was made the wife of Arthur B. Emple, a popular young man, native of New York. Miss McCloskey has been living at the High for several years, and visited home last summer. She has very many friends hereabouts, who will hear of her marriage with pleasure and best wishes.

An afternoon tea will be served in St. John (Stone) church schoolroom next Thursday afternoon from 4 until 6, the proceeds of which will go to maintaining a cot in the Orphan's Home in Labrador, instituted by and under the direction of that noble philanthropist, Dr. Grenfell. The tea will be under the supervision of Miss Helen Robertson, local representative of the Royal National Mission to Deep Sea Fishermen. It will be remembered that Dr. Grenfell told of building this home when he lectured here about two years ago.

BAPTIST MINISTERS' MEETING.

United Baptist ministers met in weekly session. There were present: Rev. Dr. Black, A. J. Prosser, A. B. Coboe, D. Hutchinson, P. J. Stackhouse.

Usual reports were heard from the churches. Rev. D. Hutchinson preached in Murray street, and in the morning preached at Carmarthen street Methodist.

The following exchange was agreed upon: Germain St.—Rev. F. E. Bishop. Brussels St.—Rev. W. W. McMaster. Tabernacle—Rev. A. B. Coboe. Main St.—Rev. P. J. Stackhouse. Fairville—Rev. D. Hutchinson.

It was announced that Miss Ida Newcombe, a returned missionary, would speak in the Tabernacle Church tonight on Life Among the Telegus.

FOOTBALL.

The U. N. B. football team are endeavoring to arrange for a game with the Marathons here on Monday, Nov. 4. The U. N. B. team passed through today on their way to Sackville, where they play the Mt. Allison team tomorrow. They have also games to play with Acadia, St. Joseph's and the Wanderers, of Halifax. It is doubtful whether a game can be arranged for Monday as the Marathons expect to have the Wanderers here on Saturday and do not wish to have both games come so close together.

The Marathons are also in communication with the Moncton team and expect to arrange a game with them for the near future.

ROAD RACE SANCTIONED.

F. W. Meyer, of the M. P. A. A., has sent notice that sanction has been granted the Marathon Athletic Club for the road race here on November 17th. The course for the race will be from Brookville by way of Marsh road and Brussels street to the court house, a little over five miles. Already several entries have been received from local runners and it is expected more will be handed in in the next few days. It is probable that the U. N. B. will be represented and perhaps some of the local colleges. Entries will be received up to Nov. 10th by the secretary of the Marathon Association.

THEIR PEACEFUL SLEEP DISTURBED BY JOE SCOTT

Joe and Jim Murphy Got Free Lodging in Berryman's Hall—Abusive Language Case Called Off.

There were three prisoners on the police court bench this morning. Two brothers, James and Joseph Murphy were found by Policeman Scott about 4 o'clock yesterday morning in Berryman's Hall in the roll of mid and nod. James informed the court that he had hired to cook for a man in Missee Saturday night, and the man whom he did not know took him to Berryman's Hall and told him to wait there. Joe Murphy said that he was just accompanying his brother Jim when he found Jim he was lying on the hall floor with his boots off and an overcoat spread over him. He said he had taken a weak spell and was forced to find shelter there. He also said that he was alone. Joe was found asleep on top of a table.

They were each sentenced to two months in jail.

Alphonse Wauger, the Parisian wanderer, was liberated Saturday morning, and about twenty hours afterwards, being unable to give a satisfactory account of himself was arrested on Reed's Point wharf. He said he was a member of the steamer Calvin Austin's crew, but when he attempted to board the ship was ejected. This morning in court he was all smiles and in answer to questions by the court only smiled at the magistrate and pretended he did not understand English. He was remanded to jail and orders issued that he be examined by a physician.

The case of abusive language preferred by Harry King against George Waycock was to have come up at 10 o'clock this morning, and King was to have been charged by Mrs. Waycock with using abusive language to her. When the case was called King was not in court, and the magistrate said that if the case was gone on with and he found that bad language had been used on both sides he would fine both parties. Dr. A. W. Macrae said that if the case was gone on with he was willing to drop the case if King was. The magistrate then dismissed the case.

ANOTHER MAN WHO IS AFTER DAMAGES

John Rhea Says His Property on Union St. West Was Damaged by the Landslides.

From all appearances the city may have to face another suit of damages to property if some arrangements are not made. Mr. John Rhea, who some years ago purchased a property on Union street, west end, near the Shore Line depot, and about opposite the site for the new wharf. Last spring he had considerable improvements put on his premises; new posts had been driven into the house and a new story with a French roof added to the building. About a month ago the street from his property were the doors would not shut. It is necessary to make extensive repairs before the dwelling will be put in the shape it was before.

WEST SIDE MATTERS.

Big Gang at Work on Union Street—Dredging is Going Along Well.

The dredging at Sand Point is progressing favorably and judging from present indications the work will be through before the steamer arrive. The Orange Peel met with an accident on Saturday but little time was lost in making repairs and she started work again today.

Since the Orange Peel has been at work at Sand Point a change has been made in her crew. It is understood that a new captain has been put in charge of her. When asked about the matter several of the civic officials refused to talk.

The Beaver is at No. 3 crib site and on Saturday dug three scow loads of mud. This morning two scows were filled and Mr. Mayes says this is about the best work the Beaver has ever done.

A large crew of men are employed today at Union street, W. E., and are making ready for the laying of the tracks for the C. P. R. A pile-driver is being operated and the work is progressing rapidly.

PLANS FOR NEW BARRACKS HAVE BEEN APPROVED

This morning's session of the Salvation Army Congress took the form of a spiritual meeting which was led by Commissioner Coombs. This afternoon a conference of the officers is taking place. Commissioner Coombs has announced that the plans for the new barracks have been passed. The new building will be erected on the present site of the Charlotte street barracks. The Glouce Bay band had a street parade at noon today.
