NEW YORK, May 26—Terry Mc-Govern, of Brooklyn, and Spike Robson, the English featherweight, fought six rounds tonight at the National Athletic Club. It was a somewhat tame exhibition. No decision was rendered, but under and conditions the first probably would have been decision. nght probably would have been declared a draw, although Roson plainly had the better of it toward the end. McGovern started well and during the first four rounds landed enough blows to put his man out many times over bad they had any steam behind them.
