

SUMMARY NEWS.

Dominion.
— Arthur L. Calhoun, Esq., of Tacoma, has returned to St. John, visiting his father John B. Calhoun and family.
— Albert Doupe, a young man, was instantly killed by lightning, last Thursday, while cutting grass in a field near Woodlands, Ont.
— Mr. P. A. Peterson, engineer of C. P. R., has just returned to Montreal from the flooded district of British Columbia, and says the reports sent out were enormously exaggerated.
— Rev. Chas. A. Eaton, pastor of the Baptist church in Natick, Mass., leaves for Boston July 6, for a tour in England and Scotland in company with the well known Dr. Lorrimer, of Tremont Temple.
— Railway strikes are affecting westward travel as far as St. John. No tickets can be bought at the C. P. R. station here for points west of Detroit, as officials cannot be sure that passengers will be forwarded.
— The Intercolonial made a profit during the last year of $210,161. The P. E. Island railway a loss of $65,731, and the Windsor branch a profit of $17,426, making a net loss on the whole of the government railways of $28,154.
— Graduates of Whiston's Commercial College for the month of June are as follows:—George Hutchison, Dartmouth; George J. VanBuskirk, Bedford; Robert W. Wright, Halifax; Wm. M. Martin, Port Hawkesbury; Alonzo Hunter, Mt. Denison.
— The output for the month of June at the International pier, says the Island Reporter, was 37,000 and some odd tons, by far the largest in the history of coal shipping in Cape Breton. The output at the reserve was 20,000 tons, which is also the record for that pier.
— Mr. Fowler, station agent at Dorchester, has been discharged for going to Moncton on Dominion day against orders, and Brown, the night agent, has been suspended for a week for trying to shield Fowler. The latter has been offered a subordinate position in Halifax or St. John.
— London despatch says:—Arrangements have been nearly concluded to provide for the necessary capital to finish the Chignecto ship railway connecting the Bay of Fundy with the Gulf of St. Lawrence. The promoters are sanguine that the railway will soon be in operation and will shortly submit a proposal regarding it to the Dominion government.
— Willie Howard King, aged 21, son of James King, farmer, Mount Pleasant, Cumberland Co., N. S., was bathing in River Philip, Wednesday night. He went beyond his depth and was drowned. When sinking he caught hold of DeWolf, and it was with the greatest effort the latter got clear of the drowning man. The body was recovered two hours afterwards.
— Ira D. Sankey, the well known singing evangelist and co-worker with D. L. Moody, was in Halifax last week, accompanied by Mrs. Sankey and their son, stopping at the Halifax hotel. They came from Charlottetown, where Mr. Sankey has been for several days. The famous hymn singer and composer is a man of rather striking appearance, prominent eyebrows and kindly face and rather stout physique.
— The following comes to the Chronicle from Isaac's Harbor: It is generally reported here in Isaac's Harbor, and it seems that the report is correct, that some people belonging to County Harbor, have uncovered a large and extraordinary rich gold lead, near the upper waters of Isaac's Harbor. The fortunate discoverer are jubilant over their rich find, which it appears is uncovered for several hundred feet.
— The boiler of the steamer Queen exploded Wednesday in New York, Thompson river, 12 miles north of Knoxville, E. C., and the craft was blown to pieces. Eight men were on board the boat. Fireman Joseph Husband and the cook, Joseph Plette, were instantly killed and nothing could be found of their bodies. Arthur Ritchie was seriously scalded, cut and bruised. Engineer Martin was badly cut. The other four men on board escaped with slight injuries.
— At the corner of Granville and Buckinghams streets, Halifax, W. H. Johnson & Co. (Limited) have fitted up and are now occupying one of the finest establishments in the City of Halifax, for the sale of Pianos and Organs. Their spacious and beautiful apartments are filled with first class goods, pianos ranging from $200 to $1000. The stockholders of this company, being among the largest manufacturers of pianos and organs, brings the stock and the customers very near together.
— Rev. Norman McKinnon arrived in St. John last week and will at once take pastoral charge of the Congregational church. Mr. McKinnon and Mr. Philip H. Moore, post-graduates of Bowdoin College, and former graduates of Bangor Theological Seminary, were ordained by council at the Congregational church, Saco, Maine, on Friday evening. Rev. Dr. DeWitt Hyde, president of Bowdoin, preaching the ordination sermon. Mr. McKinnon's address is No. 145 Duke St.

DEATHS.
— SPENCER.—At Mira Gut, Cape Breton, N. S., April 20, Esther Allen, infant daughter of Zachary and Annie I. Spencer, aged 21 months.
— SURFAR.—At South Head, Cow Bay, C. B., Feb. 26, of a gripple, George A. M., youngest son of George W. and Ada M. Sheppard, aged 2 years and 9 months.
— ROUSSEAU.—At Newcastle Creek, Q. C., on June 10, Nettie, beloved daughter of Deacon John Rousseau, aged 29 years. Her end was peace. She leaves a sorrowing sister and father to mourn their loss.

BRUCE.—At the Range, N. B., June 15, of bronchitis, Sadie, aged 4 years and 4 months, beloved child of Enoch M. and Maria Bruce. May the consoling influences of Divine grace be manifested unto the bereaved.
— FREEMAN.—At Milton, Queens Co., N. S., May 26, Elizabeth A. Freeman, aged 56 years. Our sister was a member of the Milton Baptist Church, having united with the same about twenty years ago.
— CARTER.—At Preston, N. S., on June 29, after a year's illness of several months, borne with patience, Charles Carter, in his 63rd year; for many years a member of the First colored Baptist church. He leaves a widow and several children, who long for his sympathy.

WASSON.—At Cumberland Bay, N. B., June 19, of paralysis, Sarah M., aged 65 years, beloved wife of Thomas O. Wasson, leaving a husband, three daughters, and one son, besides many other relatives and friends to mourn their loss, which we trust is her gain. May God bless and comfort the bereft.
— ZINK.—At West Dover, Halifax Co., of heart failure, James Zink, aged 41 years. Our brother never made a public profession of religion. Still he entertained a strong hope in Jesus' blood and righteousness, and died trusting in His merits. He leaves a wife, four children, and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn. May the Lord comfort and sustain them in their time of trouble.
— SURFAR.—At South Head, Cow Bay, C. B., March 23rd, of consumption, Chas. H., son of the late Seth and Patience Shepard, aged 21 years. In early life our brother gave his heart to Christ, and united with the Hulmeville Baptist Church of which he remained a member till his death. He died happy in a member of the church. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. Lewis, Sidney.

LUTZ.—At Steeves Mountain, June 26, Sarah, aged 28 years, beloved wife of August Lutz, and daughter of Angus Wilson, deacon of the First Salisbury Baptist Church. A sorrowing husband, father, one little daughter, and numerous relatives and friends mourn the loss of a loved one. Our sister was a respected and consistent member of the Baptist Church. Though called upon to endure great suffering yet her hope was in God.
— KEITH.—At Boston, Ford A. Keith, formerly of Kinnear Settlement, son of Deacon Daniel Keith, of Kinnear Settlement. Our dear brother was called home after a short sickness, just as he was entering upon his life's work, aged 31 years. His last moments were filled with the presence of Jesus. He has gone home to be with Christ, which is far better. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. A. F. Brown in the meeting house at the place of his birth. A great crowd of friends gathered to show their last respect. Great sympathy is felt for the dear parents and family.
— ESTABROOK.—At her late residence, Prince William, York County, N. B., Mrs. Leverett Estabrook departed this life June 30th, aged 61 years. The deceased was a daughter of the late deacon William McAdam, and at the age of 24 gave her heart to God, and was baptized by Rev. Father Walker, and joined the Prince William Baptist Church, of which she was a worthy member until the day of her death. Her sickness was long and painful, but through it all she was cheerful and happy. Day and night she was watched over and cared for by her two devoted and loving daughters, and at last, according to her own wish, while the roses of June were still fragrant, she peacefully passed away to the beautiful city of God. A funeral sermon was preached by Rev. F. D. Davidson, of Gibson. Rev. Mr. Ross (Presbyterian) assisted in the service. A very large congregation assembled to pay their last respects to a kind friend and neighbor. May the Grace of God sustain those left to mourn.

VEINOT.—At Mahone Bay, June 12, of consumption, Adelaide, daughter of Eleazer Veinot. Our sister had been in ill health for a number of years, but full of ambition she held to her work as a teacher in the public schools until within a few months of her death, when her voice completely failed her, and she was obliged to resign her position. From that time onwards her decline was rapid. She bore her sufferings with heroic fortitude and calmness, never murmuring because of her great affliction. She lived a quiet life, yet a happy and Christlike one. She met death gladly as a happy release from sin and disease. Hers was a beautiful triumph over the "last great enemy."
— DELIVY.—At Dartmouth, on the 2nd inst., John Delivy, in the 65th year of his age. He was for many years deacon of the Frat Baptist Church of Preston. His mysterious death has cast a gloom over the village. Being on his way from Preston to Dartmouth to procure a coffin for his brother-in-law, who died that morning, his horse took fright and he was thrown violently to the ground, breaking two ribs and receiving other internal injuries. He was taken to brother Jacob Tynce's house, whose hospitality is unbounded. Medical aid was called by his wife, who was with him at the time of the accident, and everything that a loving wife could do, by the aid of the best medical advice, to alleviate his sufferings were provided. His age was against him. He quietly passed away on the above date fully trusting in Jesus. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." He leaves a kind wife, no children, but a large circle of relatives and friends. In his death the Church loses a faithful servant; deep sympathy is felt for the bereaved ones. His brother-in-law was buried on the 1st and he on the 4th.
