A willy remark does not always result so satisfactorily to the perpetrator as in the case of the young curate who obtained a valuable living in the west of England by seans of a pun.

The rector who held the living had died. and there were many applications for the place, which was worth ten thousand dollars a year. The living was in the gift of an earl who was surprised at the funeral by the manifestations of grief by the assembled rectors and curates. So he said to the young curate, who had been acting as the tutor of his son :

'Naturally they should feel a proper amount of grief, but I cannot understand why they should weep so frenziedly for the dead.

The young man instantly replied : 'You are mistaken my lord ; it is not for the dead they weep; it is for the living.' Thereupon the earl was so pleased with the keenoos of the remaik that he pre ented the living to the curate.

Stamped by its Uglines musing controversy has sprung up n Paris over the gender of the 'automo bile,' which the French Academy has solemely declared to be masculine.

One disputation writer would like to know how 'automobile' can be masculine. while 'locomobile' is feminine. To this the answer is triumphantly given that the automobile is too ugly to be teminine. With this gallaut and unanswersble argument all debate co-ses.
