

EX-PRESIDENT CASTRO IS NOW FULL FLEDGED PIRATE

The Stormy Petrel of Venezuela the Object of Search of Half a Dozen Cruisers--All the West India Islands Closed to Him.

St. Thomas, B. W. I., June 29.—In accordance with instructions from the government at Copenhagen, all steamship agents of St. Thomas have been notified that the government forbids the landing on the island of General Cipriano Castro, the deposed president of Venezuela in the event of his arrival here.

Castro, the exiled ex-president of Venezuela, announced his intention a short while ago of landing in force in Venezuela and calling upon his countrymen to assist him in overthrowing the government. Similar declarations have been made many times before by other South and Central American statesmen, and sometimes they have been followed up by successful action. In any event, other powers have stood aside and let the two parties most interested fight it out. Beyond seeing to it that the neutrality laws were not broken, they have considered it a matter of domestic politics on the part of the country involved. In the case of Castro, however, Great Britain, the United States and France have taken the unusual course of declaring that Castro is a pirate. If he is caught on the seas by any of their ships he will be summarily seized and taken ashore for trial as a buccaner. In the event of his offering resistance there is the extreme probability that Castro and his ship will be blown up and sunk.

Imprisonment for Castro.
Already several cruisers are on the lookout for him, and at least one vessel suspected of harboring the ex-president has been overhauled and searched. Another suspected vessel is under surveillance and it is plain that Castro has but a slight chance of following out his programme of revolution. He is now a man without a country, and it is on this account that he can be tried for piracy; for one of the offences included in the term is, "the descent from the sea upon the coast committed by persons not holding a commission from any established state." Moreover, the intent to make such a descent is an offence, and it is not necessary, as far as Castro's guilt is concerned, that he should actually make a landing upon Venezuela. Therefore, he may be seized on the mere suspicion of having such an intention, and the crime is not one that can be settled on the payment of a fine. A long term of imprisonment awaits him should he be found guilty by a British court of attempting to carry out what he has already declared his intention to be.

Chinese Pirates.
The good old-fashioned way of dealing with pirates was to hang them at the yardarm, but this measure is no longer adopted and the capital sentence is no longer passed, save for bloodshed on the high seas. Piracy, however, remains as one of the curses of the deep, although it is chiefly confined to Chinese waters. Only a few weeks ago the case was reported of a number of pirate junks attacking the Pacific Mail steamship Asia, which had become grounded on her way from Hong Kong to Shanghai. Her predicament was seen from the land and within an hour she was surrounded by Chinese pirates. Their attempts to board the Asia were defeated by the brisk revolver play of the officers and other white men aboard but the passengers were glad to escape in the boats, leaving the liner to be looted by the buccaners. Had it not been for the fortunate appearance of the scene of a Chinese liner it is likely that the passengers and crew of the Asia would have been murdered, for they were outnumbered a hundred to one by the pirates, and their annihilation was almost effected.

VOICE BACK OF THE LITTLE FELLOW—See the big possibilities before you.

Captured by Pirates.
"A Veteran Diplomat," writing on the subject in the Philadelphia Ledger relates a personal experience of a few years ago, when he was on his way from Shanghai to Hong Kong, on board one of the big Peninsular liners. The ship was creeping along through a dense fog, and the writer was standing near the bow, when the fog suddenly lifted and revealed a dozen Chinese junks close to the liner. On the deck of one of them appeared a white man, who, when he saw the other vessel so near, threw

THE AVIATORS ARE AT CALAIS

Seven Birdmen Arrive at French Sea Port After Trip Fraught With Great Deal of Danger.

Calais, France, June 29.—Seven of the contestants in the European circuit aviation race have arrived here. The aviators started from Roubaix this afternoon on the sixth stage which called for a flight to Calais and all who reached here safely agreed that the trip was one of the most difficult and thrilling they had yet undertaken. This was largely owing to the violence of the wind.

One of the aviators, Vidart, said that he had covered most of the distance sideways. The official classification for the six stages is as follows: Beaumont, 48 hours, 8 minutes; Garros, 51:48; Vidart, 64:21; Vedrine, 67:23; Gilbert, 75:53; Kimmerring, 76:52; Renaud, not announced.

The seventh stage, from Calais to Dover, has been postponed until Monday at the request of the English commissioners as the international race for the Gordon-Bennett trophy is to be raced Saturday.

CATHOLICS ATTACK THE CARNEGIE UNION
They Claim it is a Menace And Aims at the Dechristianization of Education.

Chicago, Ill., June 29.—Resolutions adopted today at the closing session of the National Catholic Educational Association followed the attack made by Father Brashaban on the Carnegie Fund and stigmatized the foundation "as a menace to the intellectual and moral wellbeing of the American people," as "irresponsible" and as "aiming at the dechristianization of education in this country."

The resolutions also advocate the establishment of a church high school system and recommend the Catholic university extension methods.

Poison Ivy.
The poison ivy can be distinguished by the fact that its leaves have only three leaflets. Its flowers are in loose slender, auxiliary panicles. The smooth fruit is pale brown. It is found in moist, shady places and presents two forms, one erect and the other climbing. It clammers over rocks and fences and by means of aerial rootlets ascends the trunks of the tallest trees. When bruised, it exudes a milky juice which becomes black on exposure to the air, and on fabrics makes a stain indelible to all ordinary solvents. A country remedy which has proven effective for poison is ordinary lard with sufficient prepared chalk to make a thick paste. Apply often rubbing well into the poisoned surface.

May Rhubarb.
Place a layer of cooked rhubarb in a crystal dish and cover with lady fingers, moistened with rhubarb juice; sprinkle in one-quarter pound of chopped preserved ginger and over all pour a good custard and garnish with whipped cream and strips of angelica.

Rhubarb Marmalade.
Put six pounds of rhubarb, which has been peeled and cut into small cubes, into a preserving kettle; also seven pounds of granulated sugar, the grated peel and juice of two oranges and two lemons, one-half pound each of English walnuts and almond meats, chopped fine, mix all together, cover and let stand all night; boil until it begins to jelly and stir to keep it from burning.

SESSION COMPLETED IN ALBERT CO. COURT

Entire Docket Finished Yesterday — Assault Cases Disposed of—Difficulty in Securing Witnesses.

Special to The Standard.
Hopedwell Camp, June 29.—The business of the Albert county court was finished today, the entire docket being exhausted. The two cases of assault preferred against Herold Kennie, the driver of a school van, were tried. Kennie was charged with horse-whipping two small boys, for rolling up the curtains of the van. He was convicted before Justice A. W. Bray, at Hopedwell Hill in the month of May, 1910 and a fine of $2 and costs in each case was imposed. E. E. Peck acting for the prosecution and Daniel W. Stuart acting for the defence.

Before the justice in the hearing of the appeal yesterday and today, Geo. W. Fowler, K.C., appeared for the complainant and W. B. Chandler, K.C., appeared for the defendant.

In this case some trouble was experienced in getting two of the witnesses to the court. Constable Archibald swore he had great difficulty in serving subpoenas on two of the witnesses. In a neighbor's house and served her subpoena and tendered her the usual fee yesterday morning before Justice A. W. Bray, who granted a free passage to the court with him but at the close of court last evening this witness had not put in an appearance. The judge ordered a warrant to be made out by the clerk which was done, but his honor said he would not sign it until court opened this morning. If the witness was not then in court he would have a warrant served and the witness placed in custody. At the hour of opening this morning the witness was not present and a constable was sent from the court to bring her to court. The constable found the witness on the way to the court and after being remunerated by the judge for disobeying the summons of the court, her evidence was taken.

A younger brother of the same witness could not be found by the constable and his mother was at a neighbor's house. The witness required appeared sometime after court opened this morning and his evidence taken. The result of the hearing was that Justice Bray's decision in both of these cases was confirmed and concurred in by the judge for the appeal in both cases.

The two cases, Garland vs. Lounsbury and Garland vs. Leamon, tried before Daniel W. Stuart, the postmaster of Albert, were also taken up. In these cases before the justice, A. W. Bray, appeared for prosecution and E. E. Peck appeared for the defendant. The defendants were charged with damaging a gate but Mr. Peck took the objection that the title of the land came in question as the gate was across a right of way which had been used for many years between the families of the parties. Justice Stuart refused to sustain the objection and each of the parties was fined $5.

In the court on appeal today W. B. Chandler and A. W. Bray appeared for the complainant, John W. Garland and Geo. W. Fowler, K.C., appeared for the defendant. The judge decided that Mr. Peck's objection regarding the title of the land was well taken in the court below and quashed both of the convictions with costs. The court then adjourned.

New York, June 29.—Sam Langford, the Canadian negro heavyweight, knocked out Jack Fitzgerald, a Philadelphia "White Hope" in the fifth round of a scheduled ten round bout at the National Sporting Club here tonight.

After the first round it became a question of how long Fitzgerald would last. Langford merely toyed with his adversary until the fifth round, when a right swing put Fitzgerald down for the count of nine and on arising a left hook to the jaw knocked him out.

The three-masted fishing vessel Simono. The Simono was sunk, but the La Lorraine rescued the crew.

THE EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS CLOSED

Long And Brilliant Procession Through Streets of Madrid Yesterday—Expected Trouble Did Not Materialize.

Madrid, June 29.—The eucharistic congress closed today with a long and brilliant procession through the principal thoroughfares which were lined with cordons of troops because of rumors that there might be clashes between the paraders and the republicans. The procession moved from St. Jerome church to the royal palace where in the presence of King Alfonso and Queen Victoria, Cardinal Aquirre pronounced the benediction.

The organizers of the demonstration had requested those who took part to maintain absolute silence so as not to afford opportunity for a hostile demonstration. The republican newspapers this evening called attention to the tolerance exhibited toward the Catholics and demanded that the same rights be granted them on the occasion of their open air assemblages.

RHUBARB DELICACIES.

Apple and Rhubarb Pudding.
Soak one pint of very fine bread crumbs in one quart of milk until they are soft, then spread a butter dish with pared and cored sour apples cut as thin as a wafer; lay over these some thin slices of rhubarb; beat three eggs with one-half pint of sugar and mix with the milk and crumbs, pouring over the fruit; set in a pan of hot water in a moderate oven to cook until the custard is firm and apples tender. Serve with meringues on top placing a bit of apple jelly in each ring.

Rhubarb Sherbet.
Cook rhubarb without peeling, sweeten it well, add orange juice to taste and a little powdered gelatin in proportion of one teaspoonful to three cupsful of sherbet; strain, add one beaten egg white to every two cupsful of mixture and freeze. Serve in glasses and garnish each one with a slice of kumquat. This dish when once eaten will become a favorite.

Rhubarb Short Cake.
No. 1.—One and one-half cups of flour, one and one-half teaspoons baking powder, one-fourth teaspoon salt, one-half cup butter, scant, milk enough to make a stiff dough. Spread thin on a well-buttered tin, skin and cut thin a pound and a half of rhubarb. Add five cups of sugar and shake well. Pour over this a custard made of a half cupful of sugar, yolks of two eggs, and a cupful of rich milk. Bake twenty-five minutes.

No. 2.—At night set a sponge with three-fourths of a pint of milk, one teaspoon salt, and one yeast cake, flour to thicken. In the morning cream one-half cup of butter, one half cup sugar, two eggs. Add a little nutmeg and a little lemon rind. Add sponge to this, and beat well, then add enough flour to make a thick batter. Put in well-buttered tin—it will make three—and let rise again. One can be used for the rhubarb cake and the other two can be made into coffee cake by spreading generously with butter and sprinkling sugar and cinnamon on top. For the rhubarb cake beat three lemons, its flowers are in loose clusters and the other climbing. It clammers over rocks and fences and by means of aerial rootlets ascends the trunks of the tallest trees. When bruised, it exudes a milky juice which becomes black on exposure to the air, and on fabrics makes a stain indelible to all ordinary solvents. A country remedy which has proven effective for poison is ordinary lard with sufficient prepared chalk to make a thick paste. Apply often rubbing well into the poisoned surface.
