

ORANGE ORDER WANTS MILITIA ACT ENFORCED

In Addition it Also Asks That Every Fit Canadian
Who Has Gone to U. S. Be Returned.

Toronto, Ont., March 14.—An manifesto just issued by the Orange order from their head office here, they ask on the government to not only enforce the Militia act, but to prevent physically fit men from leaving Canada. In addition, they want every fit Canadian who has gone to the United States since the outbreak of the war immediately sent back and enrolled for military service. Failing this they would demand that every re-entering the country as undesirable citizens.

RHEUMATISM CURED

In the days of our fathers and grandfathers rheumatism was thought to be the unavoidable penalty of middle life and old age. Almost every elderly person had rheumatism, as well as many young people. Medical science did not understand the trouble—did not know that it was rooted in the blood. It was thought that rheumatism was the mere effect of exposure to cold and damp, and it was treated with liniments and hot applications, which sometimes gave temporary relief, but did not cure the trouble. In those days there were thousands of rheumatic cripples. Now medical science understands that rheumatism is a disease of the blood, and that with good, rich, red blood any man or woman of any age can defy rheumatism and can be cured by killing the poison in the blood which causes it. There are many elderly people who have never felt a twinge of rheumatism, and many who have conquered it by simply keeping their blood rich and pure. The blood making, blood enriching qualities of Dr.
Williams' Pink Pills is becoming everywhere more widely known, and it is the more general use of these pills that has robbed rheumatism of its terrors. At the first sign of poor blood, which is shown by loss of appetite, palpitations, dull skin and dim eyes, protect yourself against the further ravages of disease by taking Dr.
Williams' Pink Pills. They have cured thousands of people—if you give them a fair trial they will not disap-point you.

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 70 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from

ARREST REVEALS SWINDLE OF "LOYAL" GERMANS

Mysterious Machine, Supposed to Be Able to Reproduce United States Thousand Dollar Bills, is Seized by Police —Wealthy Men Lose.

New York, March 12.—Arrested on charges of having swindled Germans in this country out of many thousands of dollars, the police found in the rooms of Max Wex, a highly educated native of Hamburg, letters from German Consuls in America that caused them to consult the federal secret service agents.

Wex is said to have possessed a marvellously complex electric machine which cost him $500 and which is now in the possession of the police. It is similar but much more impressive than the old swindling money making machine by which any persons of low intelligence have been robbed of their savings, believing it would change one dollar bills into bills of a higher denomination.

Frank Sternberg, who exhibits trained down on the vaudeville stage, and lives at No. 8 West Fifty-second street, figures as one of the complainants, and his case is said to be similar to that of many other Germans. In this city, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Chicago and other places.

To Entangle the Currency Sternberg said that Wex assured him he was sent out by the Berlin government on a mission to entangle the currency in this country so there would be much more paper money in circulation than there was gold to secure it. To effect this Sternberg was informed that German scientists had devised the mysterious electrical machine exhibited to him. If he would put a new $1,000 bill into the slot and turn on the current he would receive in return ten new $1,000 bills that could not be distinguished from the original. Then to aid Germany, he was to circulate these $1,000 bills at once, getting them changed into gold and he could keep the gold for thus aiding this country.

Sternberg was a double patriot, according to the police. He obtained two new $1,000 bills from his bank and put them into the machine. The current was turned on and the machine ground and hummed for ten minutes, showing different kinds of lights.

When the current was turned off a small metal box was taken from the machine and given to Sternberg. He was told that it contained ten new $1,000 bills, but that he must not open it for twelve hours or until the colors on the new bills were entirely "set." Sternberg slept on that box overnight, while the big electric machine was taken away. When Sternberg opened the box next day he found it contained nothing more than tissue paper.

Captain Cooper of the Fourth Branch Bureau and Detective McGee said they had been on Wex's trail several weeks and had traced the machine through various Western cities.
From Chicago it was sent a few days ago to a machine shop in East Eleventh street, and the detectives yesterday seized it and arrested Wex.

Find Letters From Consuls

Wex, a tall man of distinguished appearance with a mustache like that of the Kaiser, had rooms at No. 305 West 123rd street. Letters were found there from half a dozen German consuls in this country, and their contents, not made public, caused the police to call in the government Secret Service agents. There also were letters from banks in Berlin, Hamburg, other German cities.
Monte Carlo, indicating that he had deposited large sums of money, and that other sums had been deposited to his credit.

Captain Cooper said that the police, incidentally had obtained the names of Germans in this country who were willing to aid Germany to the extent of depreciating the value of the currency in this country and profiting extensively themselves. In one place on Long Island several Germans are said to have deposited from one to five one thousand dollar bills each in the machine, all being swindled.

It is believed that many of those who have been swindled have failed to report their loss because of the questionable transaction involved.
Only Germans of means were solicited, it was said, and they could afford to lose a few thousand dollars and say nothing.

14.—A special train from Copenhagen, carrying Count and Countess Von Bernstorff and the embassy and consular corps from the United States, arrived in Berlin at 8.30 tonight.
Von Bernstorff met representatives of the foreign office and numerous political friends, among them Dr.
Bernhard Dernburg and Captain Karl Boy-Ed, former naval attache in Washington.
Count Von Bernstorff refused to make any statement before reporting to Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg and Foreign Secretary Zimmermann.
It was generally remarked at the station that the returning ambassador had aged considerably since his last visit here.
