 OF THE
 OF THE

MINUTES
OF THE
NINTH ANNUAL MEETING
OF THE
NOVA SCOTIA FREE BAPTIST FOREIGN MISSION SOCIETY,
Held at Port Medway, Friday Evening, Sept. 15th, 1876.

The President, Rev. W. Downey, in the Chair.
 The Recording Secretary, Rev. J. I. Porter, in his seat.
 Rev. T. H. Crowell, who was not able to attend, because of ill-health and absence from the Province, sent his resignation as Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer of the Society. Bro. Crowell's resignation was written in words of tenderness, love, and trust, touching every heart, and causing all to feel and fear they were parting words. It was then resolved that the resignation of Bro. Crowell, who had so long and well served the Society, be received. It was then voted that the following brethren be the Officers and Committee of the Foreign Mission Society for the ensuing year, viz.:
 X Rev. W. Downey, President,
 Revs. J. F. Smith, W. M. Knollin, and D. Oram, Vice- Presidents.
 Rev. J. I. Porter, Recording Secretary.
 Rev. J. M. Lowden, Corresponding Secretary and Treas- urer.
Executive Committee.—J. M. Lowden, F. Babcock, J. I.
 Porter, D. Oram, S. W. Wilson, M. G. McGray, W. M. Knol-lin, W. Downey, A. Gayton, B. B. Woodworth, and J. A.
 Smith.
 The Report of Committee of Conference on Missions was read, when it was moved and seconded that it be received, adopted, and engrossed on the Minutes. (See Report.)
 — Rev. J. L. Phillips was called to the stand, and said: He was very much pleased with the Report. Bro. Phillips seemed very much encouraged with the increasing interest
