AROUND THE TOWN.

They were talking about the dangers of Christian Science. It seems a far ery from Christian Science to the Paris crew, and yet that is where the subject turned, and in this way: "The dangers of Chris-tian Science," said the Old Sport, "are nothing to the dangers of hypnotism, if you mix the hypnotism with a little boat in Science," said the Old Sport, "are in a finangy the second s ous passes in front of his face—and all that! "Trom the face of number one the ironi-cal grin vanished and into its place crept that startled look which marks the rab-bit's expression before he starts across country on the jump. More passes, slower now, and the startled look was replaced by a fixed stare into vacancy. Still the magnetic hands of the thirsty man moved and the eyes of the other thirsty man closed and he was clay in the hands of the potter. "Sing,' said the hypnotist, and he sang, harshly and croakingly and with a parch-ed and dry throat; but if it was not music, it was proof. He made a speech under hypnotic control, and did other fool-ish things, and all present were convinced that the hypnotist was not a bluffer. He EIGHT ELECTIONS IN CANADA. These Necessary Before House of Commons Will Be Complete. The death of Mr. McLeod, M. P. for North Ontario, at Vancouver, leaves seven vacancies for the house of commons. If the Yukon (new constituency) be included, the Yukon (new constituency) be included, it will make eight. There is one vacancy in British Colum-bia, two in Ontario, three in Quebec and one in Nova Scotia. Burrard (B. C.), vacant through the death of Rev. G. R. Maxwell, has been represented by that gentleman, a Liberal, since its creation in 1896. North Ontario has had a checkered career, but is Conservative since 1887, ex-cept when it elected a Patron by a small majority. 0.021/2 0.021/2 0.12 North Grey, vacant through the death of T. H. London, Nov. 21-John Morley address ing the National Liberal Club tonight, predicted that the day of triumph for the Liberal party was not so remote as some persons believe. There was no doubt, he said, that on the question of the education bill the comments with the source of the source o said, that on the question of the education bill the government would triumph over the opposition, but some victories were more costly than defeat, and no worse day's work ever was done than when legis-lation was passed which divided the coun-try, into two great rival camps of church and dissent.

He contributed last year as required by the law, $372,000 to the na-tional insurance fund and gave voluntarily $4,080,000 to other insurance funds. Not-withstanding his benevolent interests in the laborers, he was an autocrat in are management of his concerns. He was al-most unknown by sight to his workmen and rarely visited the works or offices. He spent several months every year on the Island of Capri and managed his gun works, rolling mills, iron mines and ship yards by letters and telegrams. ON CHURCH GOVERNMENT

Toronto, Nov. 23-(Special)-Principal Caven, of Knox College, in a sermon to-day contrasted "Presbyterianism with other forms of church government. He said the Anglicans had no justification in the New Testament for their orders-ministers, bishops, "priests or deacons. He suggested that Presbyterians use the title "deacon," as it had been used in the apostolic age. He pointed out the prac-tical disadvantages, of the congregational system in regard to general church work. Presbyterianism always favored church union. "I would to God," he said, "there were further external union in some form or under some name that would consoli-date our power, unite us against the com-mon enemies of all churches, and enable us to prosecute at home and abroad the work given us to de."

Death of Bank Manager Recalls Forgery Scheme and Capture of 25 Years' Ago.

Quebec, Nov. 21-A local paper tells the following story of Mr. Cumberland, the late manager of the Bank of B. N. A. here, whose death occurred on Wednesday and who was buried in Quebec this after toon: "Much more than a quarter of a entury ago, the writer of these lines knew noon: Much more than a quarter of a century ago, the writer of these lines knew him when he was a teller an St, John (N. B.) He performed there a very skillful piece of amateur detective work. Our readers will remember that on a certain day, a band of forgers arranged to present drafts at every branch of, the Bank of British North America vin Canada and New York. The paper was defitly prepared, and every manager was defitly prepared, and every manager was deterived, it bore such a genuine look. The scamp who had the presentation of the letter of credit at Winnipeg made a fatal mistake. He hand-ed in his paper some hours too soon, and the head office had time to telegraph to all branches that the bills were forgeries. The late Mr. Farouharson Smith was man-ager of the bank here, and was notified in time to save the loss. Other branches did not fare so well. In St. John, Mr. Mac-Lellan was manager, and in the morning
