

but assurances have been given indicating the acceptance of Christ as a personal Saviour and growth in the Christian life.

A mission has been established on Logan St., much good being accomplished. Representation has also been undertaken one evening each week at the McDougall mission. A bell was consigned to an Indian mission at an expense of $70. This branch of the work is prospering. The musical equipment has been improved by the purchase of a piano costing $360. The supreme object of the Association is to foster and develop the attributes of a Christian character and to incite a zealous interest in the service of Christ.

"For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid which is Jesus Christ."
