Every year we put up lots of hay, and I don't require it for one year we have it for another. This year has been a hard one on feed and as a result I am slow feeding hay that I put up three years ago. However, I will have plenty to last out this winter unless it lasts until May or June, which is far from being probable."

The New Muslins and Organdies

A broad exposition of bewildering beauty showing the endless numbers of decided novelties as to weaves, shades and original designs. MARVELLOUS EXPANSION is the one term that describes this store today in comparing it with the same store of a few short weeks ago. Let us step for a few moments into the new Muslin and Organdie section. Here a broad exposition of bewildering new beauties hold forth displaying almost numberless novelties as to weaves, shades and designs in these popular spring and summer dress fabrics. It is quite apparent we will not be able to describe to you in detail all the rare new goods being displayed.

Decided Novelties in Muslins

Here is a dainty small blue line checked ground, covered with dainty garlands of roses and small blue dot circles in which centres a miniature rosebud. Very effective, hold it to the light, this fabric has a silky sheen.

OTHER MUSLIN NOVELTIES in red or sky and several pretty shades with "fencing" effect in a small line silk check or silk finished check. The lines forming these checks have a certain "bulky" appearance which gives a weighty effect to this otherwise sheer fabric.

The Organdies are Immense

Indefinite formal designs with varied widths of silk stripes abound. The organdies are simply immense. Never before were ever shown in this city such a variety of weaves and colorings.

ONE THAT CATCHES THE EYE

One that catches the eye first is a dainty floral effect with a shadowy moss rose pattern, over which runs a dainty white silk stripe. Hold it up in the air—it floats. Fancy the summer girl attired in a gown of such elegant fabrics.

There are others with double narrow stripes, while others have a single wide stripe. The prevalent color tones are reds, blues, purples, and here and there a touch of green in a leaf or twig.

We are not sure

But this one just here appears to be a muslin, a little coarser mesh than muslin, however. A little ground with a simple wide stripe, made up of fine blue lines. Very smart for a new blouse we should say.

Plaids are Still Popular

Beautiful dark heather mixtures in Zephyrs and Shepherd's Plaids in mercerized goods—Silkine, sometimes it is called. We have this same Silkine in a dark red with white dot, also light blue with self stripe and white dot. These are figured at.....40c

Further Details of Organdies

Here is almost a silver and blue-black color tone. A dark blue organdie with a double narrow line self check and a lightning or flashy break of white representing what is best described as two chrysanthe-mums, the petals being outlined in more dot lines of black. Of course the plaid shows white and silky across the flowers.

Self Colored Swiss Dot Muslins Heretofore Unobtainable.

Self colored Swiss Dot Muslins have heretofore been practically unobtainable. For summer gowns these same goods will simply be "stunning." The shades are light and dark, blue, mauve, etc, with a simple white dot.

Charming Effects in White Vestings

White Vestings will be very popular. We have them in spots, stripes, checks and embroidered effects. They are mercerized or silk finished fabrics. Big Assortments at 20c and 40c per yard.

A Novelty for Shirt Waist Suits

Light and Dark Blue and Fawn Fabrics resembling Shantung Silk. They have the shimmer of Shantung and also the weight. This, of course, is plain colored goods and it strikes us they would make up "swill" in shirt waist suits.
