

of London, Middlesex, Ont., Jan. 23, 1828, he was ed. at the local schs., and joined his father in business as a brewer. He is now, and has been for many yrs., Presdt. of the Carling Brewing and Malting Co., which controls a large share of the Can. trade. A Con. in politics, he sat for London in the old Can. Assembly from 1857 to the union of 1867. Thereafter, he sat for some time in both the Ont. Legislature and the Ho. of Commons at Ottawa. He was Receiver-Genl. for a short period in the Cartier-Macdonald Govt., 1862, and held the office of Comnr. of Agriculture and Public Works in Sandfield-Macdonald's Provl. Admn. throughout its existence. He entered Sir John Macdonald's Govt. as Postmaster-Genl., May 23, 1882, becoming Mr. of Agriculture, Sept. 25, 1883, an office he continued to fill under Sir John Abbott, but ceased to hold under Sir John Thompson. He remained a mem. of the Cabinet without portfolio until the close of the latter's administration, Dec. 12, 1894. Mr. C. was called to the Senate, Apl. 27, 1891, but resigned, Feb., 1892, to stand again as a candidate for the Commons. He was created a K. C. M. G., June 3, 1893, and called a second time to the Senate, Apl. 23, 1896. In 1893 he declined appt. as Hon. Comnr. for Can. at the World's Fair. In Mch., 1893, the Comte. of the Ho. of Commons on Agriculture and Colonization, adopted a resolution expressing its appreciation of the services rendered by him to the agricultural interests of the Dom. When occupying the position of Mr. of Agriculture for Ont. in the Sandfield-Macdonald Govt., he undertook the work of establishing the Agricultural Coll. and Experimental Farm, and laid the foundations of the present provl. institution; which has proved so useful to Ont. The resolution went on to declare in terms of the highest praise that the system of experimental farms, embracing all the climates of the Dom. from the Atlantic to the Pacific which he established as Mr. of Agriculture, has proved of very great practical advantage to the agricultural interests of Can., and it also gave him credit for what he had done towards the promotion of the cattle trade, the establishment of the quarantine system, and the advancement of the dairy interests.
